- H. Allocation of a bigger budget for the OHS department
- I. Plan to prioritize health and safety issues as a business strategy
- J. Report showing the trend of an increase in safety incidents

Answer: C,D,E,F,H,I

Explanation:

Comprehensive Detailed Explanation along with All ISO 45001 Audit References Clause 9.3 of ISO 45001:2018 outlines the requirements for management reviews. These reviews must evaluate the performance of the OHSMS and identify opportunities for improvement. Outputs of management reviews typically include decisions and actions that align with strategic and operational priorities.

Analysis of Options:

* A. Decisions related to continual improvement opportunities: This is a valid output, as continual improvement is a key objective of management reviews under Clause 10.3.

* B. Allocation of a bigger budget for the OHS department: Resource allocation is a common output of management reviews to address identified needs.

* C. Improvements in the OHSMS: Improvements reflect the organization's commitment to enhancing safety performance.

* D. Minutes of previous management reviews: While minutes provide context, they are not an output of the current management review.

* E. Opportunities to integrate the OHS management system with other business processes:

Integration opportunities are valid outputs, as they enhance the system's effectiveness.

* F. Plan to prioritize health and safety issues as a business strategy: Strategic alignment of health and safety with business objectives is an expected output.

* G. Procurement of new safety harnesses for workers: This is an operational action, not a direct output of the management review process.

* H. Report showing the trend of an increase in safety incidents: This is an input to the management review, not an output.

* I. Updates to the risk register: Risk register updates reflect changes in identified hazards and risks, making this a valid output.

* J. Worker feedback of positive and negative comments: Worker feedback is an input to the management review, not an output.

ISO References:

* Clause 9.3: Management review inputs and outputs.

* Clause 10.3: Continual improvement actions.

NEW QUESTION # 59

Which three of the following ISO 45001 activities require the organisation to emphasise non-managerial workers' participation?

- A. Managing the internal audit programme

- C. Establishing OHS objectives
- D. Determining actions to eliminate hazards
- E. Determining what needs to be communicated
- F. Determining how to fulfil legal requirements
- G. Determining controls on outsourced processes
- H. Determining competence requirements

Answer: B,C,D

Explanation:

ISO 45001 emphasizes the importance of worker participation, particularly non-managerial workers, in developing and improving the OH and S management system. Clause 5.4 outlines specific areas where their involvement is crucial.

Analysis of Options:

* A. Determining competence requirements: Incorrect. Competence requirements are primarily determined by management but may involve feedback from workers.

* B. Determining how to fulfil legal requirements: Incorrect. Management typically handles compliance with legal requirements.

* C. Determining controls on outsourced processes: Incorrect. This is a management responsibility.

* D. Managing the internal audit programme: Incorrect. Workers participate in audits, but managing the program is a management task.

* E. Determining what needs to be communicated: Incorrect. Communication strategies are usually set by management.

* F. Determining actions to eliminate hazards: Correct. Non-managerial workers' input is vital in identifying and eliminating workplace hazards (Clause 8.1.2).

* G. Establishing the OHS policy: Correct. Workers' participation in policy development ensures it is relevant and inclusive (Clause 5.2).

* H. Establishing OHS objectives: Correct. Workers' participation ensures that objectives are practical and aligned with workplace realities (Clause 6.2).
