NEW QUESTION # 128

- A. The delivery of a new service that delivers a much better service experience.
- B. The delivery of a new product that delivers a much better product experience.
- C. The use of marketing to tell the world yours is a much better experience.
- D. The staging of a purposefully-designed and orchestrated new customer experience.

Answer: D

NEW QUESTION # 129

In the fourth step in the GInI Breakthrough Innovation Method-Synthesis & Capture-teams conceptually define and document the details around any number of new solution concepts, including any feature mixes they require.

Select one correct answer from the list:

- A. New value models, including any technologies they rely on
- B. New business models, including any regulatory approvals they require
- C. New value propositions, including any market niches they are aimed at
- D. New solution concepts, including any feature mixes they require

Answer: D

Explanation:

The fourth step of the GInI Breakthrough Innovation Method, "Synthesis & Capture," is about consolidating insights from prior steps into tangible outputs. The CInP Handbook specifies that teams "conceptually define and document" "new solution concepts," detailing their features and requirements (e.g., functionality, design elements). This step focuses on the "what" of the solution-specific ideas that address the defined context- before broader considerations like value propositions or business models are fully fleshed out.

Option A,

"value propositions," emerges later, tying solutions to market needs. Option B, "value models," involves delivery mechanisms, beyond this step's scope. Option C, "business models," includes strategic and regulatory aspects, typically Mid Zone concerns.

Option D aligns with GInI's focus on solution concepts as the immediate output, matching the question's wording and the original answer. This reflects GInI's Front End emphasis on ideation-to-concept transition, ensuring ideas are concrete before validation, a process rooted in iterative design principles.

NEW QUESTION # 130

The purpose of a business is what?

Select one correct answer from the list

- A. To create value for its different stakeholders.
- B. To develop and sell good products and services.
- C. To make money, in the form of profit.
- D. To grow to a large enough size that it can influence society.

Answer: A

NEW QUESTION # 131

Innovation is an acquirable mentality and skillset.

Select one correct answer from the list:

- A. extremely rare
- B. extremely common
- C. in-born
- D. acquirable

Answer: D

Explanation:

GInI's foundational philosophy, as articulated in the CInP Handbook, posits that innovation is not an innate trait but a "mentality and skillset" that can be learned and developed through practice, training, and exposure to structured methods. Option A, "in-born," contradicts this by suggesting it's genetic. Option B, "extremely common," overstates its prevalence without training. Option C, "extremely rare," undermines GInI's mission to democratize innovation skills. D, "acquirable," reflects GInI's belief in teachability, aligning with the question's statement and the original answer. This is a core tenet of the CInP certification itself.
