Recommendations for improvement are supported by objective and quantitative evidence.

NEW QUESTION # 142

Which of the following is the integrated output that correctly reflects captured information agreed to by business analysts (BAs) and other stakeholders?

- A. Confirmed elicitation results
- B. Concept model
- C. Activity plan
- D. Business analysis information

Answer: A

Explanation:

Elicitation Results (confirmed): integrated output that the business analyst and other stakeholders agree correctly reflects captured information and confirms that it is relevant and useful as an input to further work.

NEW QUESTION # 143

What observation approach involves the observer asking questions as the work is being performed?

- A. Active/Noticeable
- B. Passive/Unnoticeable
- C. Active/Unnoticeable
- D. Passive/Noticeable

Answer: A

Explanation:

The active/noticeable observation approach involves the observer interacting with the subject, typically by asking questions as the work is being performed. This helps clarify steps, gather deeper insights, and validate the process as it unfolds. It contrasts with passive observation where the analyst simply watches without interrupting the workflow.

BABOK Reference - Technique: Observation (Section 10.31):

"Active observation involves asking questions throughout the observation, while noticeable observation means the subjects are aware of being observed."

NEW QUESTION # 144

Who is responsible for discovering, synthesizing, and analyzing information within an enterprise?

- A. Programmer
- B. Project manager
- C. Business analyst
- D. Project sponsor

Answer: C

Explanation:

The role of a business analyst is pivotal in discovering, synthesizing, and analyzing information from various sources within an enterprise. This includes gathering data from tools, processes, documentation, and stakeholders. Business analysts are tasked with eliciting the true needs of stakeholders, which often involves investigating and clarifying their expressed desires to determine underlying issues and causes. They play a crucial role in aligning the designed and delivered solutions with the needs of stakeholders, ensuring that the outcomes meet business objectives effectively.

References: This definition and explanation of the business analyst's responsibilities are consistent with the standards set by the International Institute of Business Analysis (IIBA) and the Business Analysis Body of Knowledge (BABOK) Guide 123.
