Cisco DevNet Associate Exam Sample Questions (Q450-Q455):

NEW QUESTION # 450

Which REST architectural constraint indicates that no client context should be stored on the server between requests?

- A. uniform interface
- B. cacheable
- C. stateless
- D. client-server

Answer: C

Explanation:

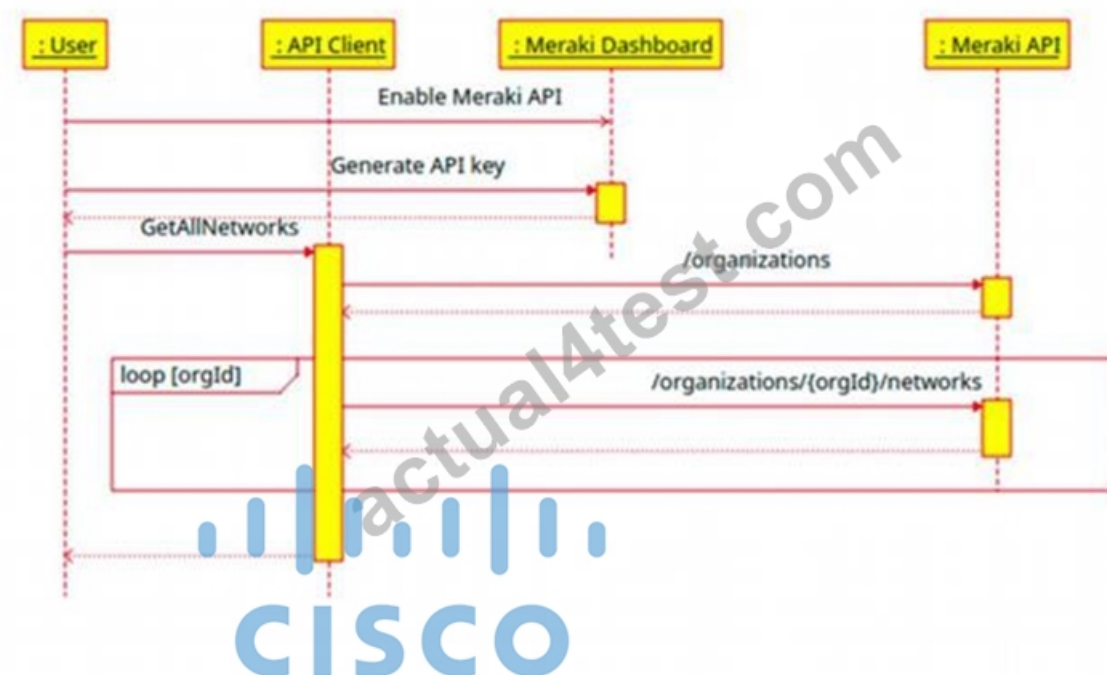

RESTful constraints are described as follows:

- Client/server - clients and servers are fully separated and communicate only via the RESTful interface.
- Stateless - no client context or state is stored on the server between requests, and each client request must contain all of the information needed for the server to service the request.
- Cacheable - clients can cache responses, and servers must define the cacheability of the response.
- Layered - a client should not be able to tell whether it is connected to a server or to an intermediate that provides functionality such as security, caching, or load-balancing.
- Code on Demand (Optional) - servers can at times extend the capabilities of a client through the transfer of executable code or scripts.
- Uniform Interface - both client and server must adhere to a uniform interface that allows for the independent development of functionality.
- Resource Identification - individual resources are identified using URIs in requests.

Representations of resources are distinct from the actual resources and may be provided in formats such as HTML, XML, or JSON.

NEW QUESTION # 451

Refer to the exhibit.

The Cisco Meraki API manages two organizations. In each organization, two independent networks are defined. How many calls to the `/organizations/{orgId}/networks` endpoint will be run parallel by the `GetAllNetwork` function of the API client?

- A. 0

- B. 1
- C. 2
- D. 3

Answer: C

Explanation:

The sequence diagram shows the process where the API client first calls the /organizations endpoint to get the list of organization IDs. Then, for each organization, it makes a call to the /organizations/(orgId)/networks endpoint to retrieve the networks for that organization. Since there are two organizations, the GetAllNetworks function will make two parallel calls to the /organizations/(orgId)/networks endpoint, one for each organization.

NEW QUESTION # 452

An engineer must run tests on several Cisco controllers. Due to the nature of the task, the infrastructure must be running at all times and have access to APIs. Which Cisco DevNet source must the engineer use?

- A. DevNet Learning Labs
- B. DevNet Code Exchange
- C. DevNet Sandbox
- D. DevNet API documentation

Answer: C

Explanation:

The Cisco DevNet Sandbox provides a virtual environment where engineers and developers can access and run tests on various Cisco controllers and infrastructure components. This service offers always-on and reservation-based sandboxes that simulate real-world environments.

* DevNet Sandbox: The Sandbox offers various environments with preconfigured Cisco devices and APIs, allowing engineers to run tests and develop solutions without affecting live systems.

* Always-On Sandboxes: These environments are always available and can be used without reservation.

* API Access: The Sandbox environments include access to APIs, enabling comprehensive testing and integration.
