Splunk IT Service Intelligence Certified Admin Sample Questions (Q79-Q84):

NEW QUESTION # 79

What are valid ITSI Glass Table editor capabilities? (Choose all that apply.)

- A. Adding KPI metric lanes to glass tables.
- B. Correlation search creation.
- C. Service swapping configuration.
- D. Creating glass tables.

Answer: A,C,D

Explanation:

Create a glass table to visualize and monitor the interrelationships and dependencies across your IT and business services.

The service swapping settings are saved and apply the next time you open the glass table.

You can add metrics like KPIs, ad hoc searches, and service health scores that update in real time against a background that you design. Glass tables show real-time data generated by KPIs and services.

Reference: <https://docs.splunk.com/Documentation/ITSI/4.10.2/SI/GTOverview> The glass table editor is a tool that allows you to create and edit glass tables in ITSI. Some of the capabilities of the glass table editor are:

Creating glass tables from scratch or from existing templates.

Configuring service swapping on widgets to toggle displaying metrics from different services.

Adding KPI metric lanes to glass tables to show historical trends of KPI values.

The glass table editor does not support correlation search creation, which is a separate feature in ITSI that allows you to create searches that look for relationships between data points and generate notable events.

NEW QUESTION # 80

To use Adaptive Thresholding, what is the minimum requirement for a set of KPI data?

- A. 14 days old.
- B. 10 days old.
- C. 30 days old.
- D. 7 days old.

Answer: D

Explanation:

To utilize Adaptive Thresholding in Splunk IT Service Intelligence (ITSI), the minimum requirement for a set of Key Performance Indicator (KPI) data is that it must be at least 7 days old. Adaptive Thresholding uses historical data to dynamically adjust thresholds based on observed patterns and trends. Having a minimum of 7 days worth of data allows the system to analyze a sufficient amount of information to identify normal ranges and variances in KPI behavior, thereby setting more accurate and contextually relevant thresholds. This requirement ensures that the adaptive thresholds are based on a meaningful data set that reflects the typical operational conditions of the monitored services.

NEW QUESTION # 81

What can a KPI widget on a glass table drill down into?

- A. A custom deep dive.
- B. Any of the above.
- C. Another glass table.
- D. A Splunk dashboard.

Answer: B

Explanation:

In Splunk IT Service Intelligence (ITSI), a KPI widget on a glass table can be configured to drill down into a variety of destinations based on the needs of the user and the design of the glass table. This flexibility allows users to dive deeper into the data or analysis represented by the KPI widget, providing context and additional insights. The destinations for drill-downs from a KPI widget can include:

A) Another glass table, offering a different perspective or more detailed view related to the KPI. B. A Splunk dashboard that provides broader analysis or incorporates data from multiple sources. C. A custom deep dive for in-depth, time-series analysis of the KPI and related metrics.

This versatility makes KPI widgets powerful tools for navigating through the wealth of operational data and insights available in ITSI, facilitating effective monitoring and decision-making.

NEW QUESTION # 82

Which glass table feature can be used to toggle displaying KPI values from more than one service on a single widget?

- A. Service dependencies.
- B. Ad-hoc search.
- C. Service swapping.
- D. Service templates.

Answer: C

Explanation:

Reference: <https://docs.splunk.com/Documentation/ITSI/4.10.2/SI/Visualizations#collapseDesktop8> A glass table is a visualization tool that allows you to monitor the interrelationships and dependencies across your IT and business services. You can add metrics like KPIs, ad hoc searches, and service health scores that update in real time against a background that you design. One of the features of glass tables is service swapping, which enables you to toggle displaying KPI values from more than one service on a single widget.

You can use service swapping to compare metrics across different services without creating multiple glass tables or widgets.

NEW QUESTION # 83

Which of the following items apply to anomaly detection? (Choose all that apply.)

- A. There are 3 types of anomaly detection supported in ITSI: adhoc, trending, and cohesive.
- B. Anomaly detection automatically generates notable events when KPI data diverges from the pattern.
- C. Use AD on KPIs that have an unestablished baseline of data points. This allows the ML pattern to perform it's magic.
- D. A minimum of 24 hours of data is needed for anomaly detection, and a minimum of 4 entities for cohesive analysis.

Answer: B,D

Explanation:

Reference:

Anomaly detection is a feature of ITSI that uses machine learning to detect when KPI data deviates from a normal pattern. The following items apply to anomaly detection:

B) A minimum of 24 hours of data is needed for anomaly detection, and a minimum of 4 entities for cohesive analysis. This ensures that there is enough data to establish a baseline pattern and compare different entities within a service.

C) Anomaly detection automatically generates notable events when KPI data diverges from the pattern. You can configure the sensitivity and severity of the anomaly detection alerts and assign them to episodes or teams. Reference: [Anomaly Detection]
