NEW QUESTION # 129

Which of the following scenarios is LEAST LIKELY to be considered a conflict of interest that is prohibited under the ACFE Code of Professional Ethics?

- A. Ren undertakes an external engagement that requires him to work outside the normal work hours of his primary employer.
- B. DeVon undertakes engagements for both sides in a case of an alleged fraudulent warranty scheme.
- C. Lori accepts an assignment to infiltrate her employer and transmit inside information to a competitor.
- D. Karen accepts an assignment to search for fraud indicators at an organization in which she is an undisclosed partner.

Answer: A

NEW QUESTION # 130

Blue, Inc. is a specialty retailer of customized shipping containers. The company receives a very large order from Green Company, a new customer from a country that is known to have high corruption risks. Which of the following is MOST ACCURATE regarding the due diligence procedures Blue should perform on Green before proceeding with this transaction?

- A. Blue does not need to undertake any specific due diligence procedures for this transaction.
- B. Blue should consider Green's expected purchasing pattern and method of payment in determining whether to accept the transaction.
- C. Blue only needs to undertake due diligence procedures if Green is requesting to pay on credit.
- D. Blue should perform the same level of due diligence as it would for any other customer to avoid claims of discrimination.

Answer: B

Explanation:

Due Diligence in High-Corruption Risk Transactions:

* When operating in high-risk environments, enhanced due diligence is critical. This includes evaluating payment methods, transaction patterns, and the customer's reputation.

Why A is Correct:

* Analyzing purchasing patterns and payment methods helps identify red flags such as unusual payment terms or volumes inconsistent with Green's business profile.

Why Other Options are Incorrect:

* B: Due diligence is necessary regardless of payment terms.

* C: Enhanced due diligence for high-risk countries does not constitute discrimination.

* D: Ignoring due diligence poses significant compliance and reputational risks.

NEW QUESTION # 131

Glenda, an internal auditor, and Bridgette, an accounts receivable clerk, have had several heated disagreements over accounting procedures and policies. Glenda has just been told that she will be the lead on the company's fraud risk assessment. During the fraud risk assessment, Glenda should:

- A. Automatically designate the accounts receivable department as a high-risk area.
- B. Have someone else perform the fraud risk assessment work related to the accounts receivable department's activities.
- C. Confront Bridgette about the disagreements and discuss how they increase the department's risk of fraud.
- D. Include her disagreements with Bridgette as a factor when assessing the risk of fraud in the accounts receivable department.

Answer: B

Explanation:

* Impartiality in Fraud Risk Assessment:

- * As the lead on the fraud risk assessment, Glenda must maintain objectivity and avoid the appearance of bias.
 - * Her history of disagreements with Bridgette creates a potential conflict of interest, which could compromise the assessment's credibility.
 - * Why Option D is Correct:
 - * Assigning the accounts receivable department's assessment to another individual eliminates the risk of perceived or actual bias.
 - * Analysis of Other Options:
 - * A. Confrontation: Not appropriate during a professional assessment.
 - * B. Including disagreements: Personal conflicts should not influence risk evaluations.
 - * C. Automatic high-risk designation: This lacks a factual basis and undermines objectivity.
 - * Conclusion: Option D ensures objectivity and credibility in the fraud risk assessment.
- References: ACFE guidelines on objectivity in fraud risk assessment.

NEW QUESTION # 132

To address an employee's consistent failure to meet deadlines, a manager removes the employee's ability to work from home. This is an example of what type of behavioral response?

- A. Punishment
- B. None of the above
- C. Positive reinforcement
- D. Negative reinforcement

Answer: A

Explanation:

- * Understanding Behavioral Responses:
- * Punishment: Involves removing a privilege or applying a negative consequence to decrease undesired behavior.
- * Removing the ability to work from home penalizes the employee for failing to meet deadlines.
- * Analysis of Other Options:
- * A. Positive reinforcement: Adds a reward for desired behavior.
- * B. Negative reinforcement: Removes an unfavorable condition to encourage behavior.
- * D. None of the above: Incorrect, as this is clearly punishment.
- * Conclusion: The manager's action is an example of punishment.

NEW QUESTION # 133

Reputational damage is an indirect cost of fraud that can be difficult for organizations to calculate.

- A. False
- B. True

Answer: B

Explanation:

Indirect Costs of Fraud:

- * Reputational damage is a significant indirect cost of fraud. It can lead to loss of customer trust, reduced employee morale, and long-term financial impact.

Why A is Correct:

- * Quantifying reputational damage is challenging due to its intangible nature. The effects often manifest over time and are influenced by various factors, making precise calculation difficult.
