NEW QUESTION # 31

The Freshwater Wetlands Protection Act of 1987 is a New Jersey law that:

- A. empowers the New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection to acquire title to certain real estate for less than its fair market value through condemnation
- B. restricts development of real estate in certain designated areas
- C. requires the registration of residential development projects with the New Jersey Department of Community Affairs
- D. requires environmental impact statements to be filed with the New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection before title to developed real estate can be transferred

Answer: B

Explanation:

The Freshwater Wetlands Protection Act (1987) gives the New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection (NJDEP) the authority to regulate activities in freshwater wetlands and transition areas (buffer zones). Its primary purpose is to restrict development in wetlands and certain protected areas to preserve environmental resources.

It does not require environmental impact statements prior to transfer of title, does not authorize below-market condemnation, and is unrelated to DCA residential project registration.

NEW QUESTION # 32

New Jersey Real Estate Commission regulations require a licensee to terminate membership in a real estate board or multiple listing service whenever the organization:

- A. advocates rules, practices, and/or standards with which the licensee does not agree
- B. lobbies against legislation that the licensee personally favors
- C. suggests uniform commission rates among all member brokers
- D. charges dues that the licensee feels are excessive

Answer: C

Explanation:

The NJ Real Estate Commission prohibits price-fixing or collusion regarding commission rates. If a real estate board, trade association, or MLS suggests or enforces uniform commission rates among member brokers, participation in such a practice would violate antitrust laws as well as NJREC regulations.

In such cases, licensees must terminate their membership immediately to avoid disciplinary action. Lobbying, dues disputes, or general disagreements with rules are not grounds for mandatory termination.
