- C. by the candidate, and by anyone who has the right privileges on the job offer
- D. by the candidate or recruiter giving an e-signature

Answer: C

NEW QUESTION # 89

When setting up job requisition template type For Position, the Job Family and Job Function fields are not available for use on the template. What is the reason for this?

- A. These fields must be manually enabled by using Transaction Design Studio
- B. These fields must be added by the recruiter when the requisition is created
- C. These fields are not available for job postings
- D. Position-based requisition templates don't include fields for which information is available from the job of the position

Answer: D

Explanation:

The reason is that Position-based requisition templates don't include fields for which information is available from the job of the position.

Step-by-Step Solution:

- * Create a Position-based requisition template.
- * Check available fields (Job Family and Job Function are absent).
- * Verify that these fields are derived from the linked position's job.

In Position-based templates, fields like Job Family and Job Function are inherited from the position's job definition, reducing redundancy. This is by design in Oracle Recruiting Cloud. Reference: Oracle Recruiting Cloud Requisition Template Guide, Position-Based Templates section.

NEW QUESTION # 90

A recruiting administrator wants to create a new design for their career site, but is struggling to come up with creative paragraph content for the updated pages. Which feature would best support the administrator in this endeavor?

- A. AI Assistant
- B. Transaction Design Studio
- C. Career Site Create

Answer: A

Explanation:

The AI Assistant feature best supports generating creative content for career site pages.

Step-by-Step Solution:

- * Go to Career Site Configuration in Oracle Recruiting Cloud.
- * Activate the AI Assistant feature (if enabled).
- * Enter a prompt (e.g., "Generate a welcoming paragraph for tech job seekers").
- * Use the AI-generated content to enhance the career site pages.

The AI Assistant leverages generative AI to assist with content creation, making it ideal for administrators needing creative text. Career Site Create focuses on design structure, and Transaction Design Studio is for UI customization, not content generation.
