Google Cloud Certified - Professional Google Workspace Administrator Sample Questions (Q25-Q30):

NEW QUESTION # 25
Your company policy requires that managers be provided access to Drive data once an employee leaves the company.
How should you grant this access?

- A. Make the manager a delegate to the former employee's account.
- B. Transfer ownership of all Drive data using the file transfer ownership tool in the Google Workspace Admin console.
- C. Login as the user and add the manager to the file permissions using the "Is owner' privilege for all Drive files.
- D. Copy the data from the former employee's My Drive to the manager's My Drive.

Answer: B

Explanation:
* Access Admin Console: Log into your Google Workspace Admin Console.
* Navigate to Transfer Tool: Go to Apps > Google Workspace > Drive and Docs > Transfer ownership.
* Initiate Transfer: Enter the email address of the former employee and the manager who will receive the data.
* Select Data: Choose to transfer all Drive data to the manager's account.
* Complete Transfer: Confirm the transfer. This will transfer ownership of all Drive data from the former employee to the manager, ensuring they have access to the required information.

NEW QUESTION # 28

Your company has a broad, granular IT administration team, and you are in charge of ensuring proper administrative control. One of those teams, the Collaboration Team, manages Drive and Sites for all users. IT teams are not allowed to manage services other than their own. You are responsible for ensuring proper administrative control. What should you do?

- A. Use the System Admin role of Collaboration Admin, and assign the role to each of the Collaboration team administrators.
- B. Create a Custom Admin Role with the Drive privilege and the Sites privilege, and then assign the role to each of the Collaboration team administrators.
- C. Create a Custom Admin Role with the Drive and Docs privilege, and then assign the role to each of the Collaboration team administrators.
- D. Create a Custom Admin Role with the Collaboration privilege, and then assign the role to each of the Collaboration team administrators.

Answer: C

Explanation:
A is not correct because the role of Collaboration Admin does not exist in the G Suite Admin Panel.
B is correct because the Drive and Docs privilege exists as a custom option and provides the rights needed to manage Drive.
C is not correct because there is no Collaboration privilege.
D is not correct because there is no Sites privilege.
