NEW QUESTION # 88

The design team at Cloud Kicks has designed a desirable solution for customers that is viable to the company's business model. The strategy designer on the team now needs to determine the feasibility of the solution.

Which three main areas should be focused on to assess feasibility?

- A. Distribution channels, capabilities, and potential partners
- B. Business ROI, data analytics, and customer engagement
- C. User desirability, company viability, and deployment stability

Answer: A

Explanation:

The three main areas that should be focused on to assess feasibility of the solution are distribution channels, capabilities, and potential partners. Distribution channels are the ways or methods that a product or service reaches the customers, such as online, in-store, or direct. Capabilities are the skills, resources, or technologies that are required or available to implement a solution, such as platform features, integrations, or tools. Potential partners are the external entities or organizations that can help or support the delivery or operation of a solution, such as suppliers, vendors, or consultants. These areas help evaluate the technical and operational feasibility of the solution, and identify the gaps or opportunities for improvement or innovation.

NEW QUESTION # 89

A project team at Cloud Kicks is under pressure to solve customer supply chain issues across multiple locations. The strategy designer proposes they do some analogous research.

What should the team look to study?

- A. complex system that their customers have experienced navigating successfully.
- B. An organization outside of their industry that has solved unique but similar problems
- C. A creative setting outside of their office that provides more inspiration and activity

Answer: B

Explanation:

Analogous research involves looking at solutions in different contexts or industries to solve similar problems. For supply chain issues, studying how an unrelated industry overcame comparable challenges can provide fresh insights and innovative approaches, offering new perspectives on problem-solving.

NEW QUESTION # 90

A strategy designer is leading a project to reimagine in-app communication form. The CIO is a key decision maker but appears to be neutral-and even, at times, a detractor to the project.

What should the designer do to gain their alignment?

- A. Email the stakeholders reiterating project status and asking for any objections to the approach.
- B. Set up a conversation with the CIO to name the challenge and listen to their objections
- C. Ask the sponsor to speak to the CIO on behalf of the project and explain how it meets team needs.

Answer: B

Explanation:

The best way to gain alignment from a key decision maker who is neutral or detracting from a project is to set up a conversation with them to name the challenge and listen to their objections, as this shows respect and empathy and allows for mutual understanding and feedback. Asking the sponsor to speak to them on behalf of the project or emailing them reiterating project status may not address their concerns or motivations effectively.

NEW QUESTION # 91

Executive stakeholders have a variety of projects they want to bring to the market across multiple priorities. What is the most effective way a strategy designer could influence the stakeholders?

- A. Invite stakeholders as optional to all design team reviews.
- B. Orient around outcomes that matter to stakeholders.
- C. Create teambuilding events with stakeholders to build trust.

Answer: B

Explanation:

The most effective way a strategy designer could influence the stakeholders is to orient around outcomes that matter to them, such as business value, customer satisfaction, or social impact. This helps align the strategy with the stakeholders' vision and priorities, and demonstrate the benefits and trade-offs of different solutions. <https://trailhead.salesforce.com/en/content/learn/modules/salesforce-strategy-designer-certification-prep/influence-stakeholders-with-outcomes>

NEW QUESTION # 92

Cloud Kicks is going to conduct research with users of products to better understand their needs.

What are some safeguards that should be put in place to ensure the research is conducted ethically?

- A. A hypothesis, project plan, and financial reimbursement for users
- B. A customer journey map, research scenario, and a RAID log
- C. A code of conduct, ethics training, and a research data handling policy

Answer: C

Explanation:

Some safeguards that should be put in place to ensure the research is conducted ethically are a code of conduct, ethics training, and a research data handling policy. A code of conduct is a set of principles and guidelines that define ethical behavior and expectations for researchers and participants. Ethics training is a way to educate researchers on ethical issues and best practices in conducting research. A research data handling policy is a document that specifies how research data will be collected, stored, accessed, shared, analyzed, and disposed of in a secure and compliant manner. A customer journey map, research scenario, and a RAID log are tools for planning and documenting research activities, but they do not address ethical issues. A hypothesis, project plan, and financial reimbursement for users are elements of research design and execution, but they do not ensure ethical conduct.
