Fortinet NSE 6 - FortiSOAR 7.3 Administrator Sample Questions (Q11-Q16):

NEW QUESTION # 11

Which two roles are default roles configured on FortiSOAR? (Choose two answers)

- A. Connector Administrator
- B. T3 Analyst
- C. FortiSOAR Agent
- D. T1 Analyst

Answer: A,D

Explanation:

Comprehensive and Detailed Explanation From FortiSOAR 7.3 Exact Extract study guide:

FortiSOAR comes with several pre-defined (out-of-the-box) roles designed to align with common Security Operations Center (SOC) functions. According to the FortiSOAR 7.3 Administration Guide under the "Security Management" section:

* T1 Analyst (Tier 1): This role is a default configuration intended for front-line analysts who perform initial triaging of alerts and basic incident response tasks.

* Connector Administrator: This is a specialized default role that grants permissions specifically for configuring, updating, and managing the lifecycle of connectors within the environment.

While FortiSOAR is highly customizable and allows for the creation of T2 or T3 roles, they are not always present as specific "default" named roles in the same way the T1 Analyst is across all base installations.

Furthermore, "FortiSOAR Agent" refers to a technical component or a deployment architecture rather than a standard user RBAC (Role-Based Access Control) role. Other common default roles include Security Administrator, Application Administrator, and Full Access.

NEW QUESTION # 12

An administrator is issuing the following command on a node trying to join a FortiSOAR duster as a standby:

`csadm ha join-cluster --status active -role secondary --primary-node 10.0.1.160` The node fails to join the cluster. What is the issue?

- A. The IP address should be for secondary-node Instead of primary-node.
- B. The role value should be worker.
- C. The status value should be passive.
- D. The primary node needs to be resolvable via FQDN.

Answer: C

Explanation:

When joining a FortiSOAR cluster as a standby node, the correct status value should be passive. Using active would imply that the node is trying to join as an active node, which could cause conflicts in the cluster setup.

In FortiSOAR, standby nodes must be set as passive to ensure they are recognized correctly and to avoid conflicts with the primary node or other active nodes within the cluster. Therefore, setting the status to passive will resolve the issue and allow the node to join the cluster as intended.

NEW QUESTION # 13

When configuring an HA cluster with an externalized PostgreSQL database, which two files on the database server need to be configured to trust all FortiSOAR nodes' incoming connections? (Choose two.)

- A. postgresql.conf
- B. db_config.yml
- C. pg_hba.conf
- D. db_external_config.yml

Answer: A,C

Explanation:

In a FortiSOAR High Availability (HA) cluster setup with an externalized PostgreSQL database, it is necessary to configure the database server to allow incoming connections from all FortiSOAR nodes. This configuration involves modifying the pg_hba.conf file to set up host-based authentication and control which IP addresses can connect. The postgresql.conf file must also be adjusted to enable listening on all necessary IP addresses, which is critical for FortiSOAR nodes to connect to the database server securely and reliably. Together, these configurations ensure that all FortiSOAR nodes can access the database, facilitating effective HA functionality.

NEW QUESTION # 14

Which SMS vendor does FortiSOAR support for two-factor authentication?

- A. Telesign

This vendor provides SMS-based 2FA services, enabling FortiSOAR to leverage Telesign's API for sending verification codes as part of its security features. Telesign's service is compatible with FortiSOAR, ensuring secure user authentication when accessing the platform or certain features.
