Real Estate Maryland Real Estate Salesperson Examination Sample Questions (Q189-Q194):

NEW QUESTION # 189

A valid deed must contain all of the essential elements, plus which of the following?

- A. It must be in writing.
- B. It must be approved by the local judge.
- C. It must be sent to all parties via registered mail.
- D. It must be in nuncupative form.

Answer: A

Explanation:

Under the Statute of Frauds, all conveyances of real property must be in writing to be enforceable. A valid Maryland deed therefore includes: a competent grantor and identifiable grantee, a granting clause, an adequate legal description, consideration, signature of the grantor, delivery, and acceptance - and it must be in writing. Oral (nuncupative) or judge-approved deeds are not recognized.

NEW QUESTION # 190

Which of these statements about cooperating with other licensees is true?

- A. Licensees must cooperate with other licensees, even if it is not in their client's best interest.
- B. Licensees must cooperate with other licensees when it is in the interest of their client, and share the commission on a previously agreed-upon basis.
- C. Licensees must cooperate with and compensate other licensees, even if it's not in their client's best interest.
- D. Licensees must compensate other licensees.

Answer: B

Explanation:

Under Maryland license law and the Maryland Code of Ethics (COMAR 09.11.02.33), licensees are expected to cooperate with other licensees when doing so serves their client's best interest. Cooperation often involves sharing information or coordinating showings, but does not require compensation unless there is a written agreement specifying how commissions will be shared. The client's interest always takes priority over cooperative obligations.

NEW QUESTION # 191

How should a real estate professional handle explaining contract clauses to a client?

- A. By advising the client on landlord/tenant responsibilities
- B. By drafting new contract language to suit the client's needs
- C. By describing the legal implications of contract clauses in detail
- D. By explaining the general purpose of the contract clause without interpreting its legal impact

Answer: D

Explanation:

Comprehensive and Detailed

Licensees are permitted to explain the purpose and factual content of real estate contracts but may not interpret legal implications or draft custom clauses, which constitutes the unauthorized practice of law. The Maryland course teaches that to stay compliant, a salesperson should explain what a clause does in general terms and refer clients to a licensed attorney for legal interpretation.

NEW QUESTION # 192

What naming convention must a professional (e.g., real estate agent, attorney) follow when operating under a registered business name?

- A. They must use their own name in combination with a nickname.
- B. They must use a business name, which may not be their own name.
- C. They must use their own name or their own name in combination with a registered business name.
- D. They must use their own name only.

Answer: C

Explanation:

Comprehensive and Detailed

A sole proprietor in Maryland may operate under their personal legal name or under a trade name that has been properly registered with the Maryland Department of Assessments and Taxation (SDAT).

If a trade name is used, it must be clearly disclosed in all brokerage advertising and license registration records with the MREC.

This ensures public transparency and compliance with Maryland's real estate advertising and licensing requirements.

NEW QUESTION # 193

What's the purpose of a listing agreement in Maryland?

- A. To guarantee payment for the listing agent
- B. To specify the agreement between the listing broker and the seller
- C. To bind the seller to one agent
- D. To guarantee a sale

Answer: B

Explanation:

Comprehensive and Detailed Explanation From Exact Extract of Maryland 60-Hour Principles and Practices of Real Estate Pre-Licensing Course:

A listing agreement is a legally binding contract between a seller and a licensed real estate broker that establishes the broker's authority to market the property and represent the seller's interests in finding a ready, willing, and able buyer.

It outlines the terms of representation, including price, commission, duration, and the duties of both parties.

The agreement does not guarantee a sale; rather, it ensures mutual understanding of responsibilities and compensation should a sale occur.

This principle is covered in the Listing Agreements and Buyer Representation module.
