질문 # 125

What is a characteristic of Modules?

- A. Every Module must be associated with a table
- B. Modules cannot open forms or lists
- C. Access to Modules is not controlled with roles
- D. Every Module must be part of an Application Menu

정답: D

설명:

In ServiceNow, Modules are navigation elements that provide access to various parts of the platform, such as forms, lists, reports, or other application components. They are organized within Application Menus to create a structured and intuitive navigation hierarchy.

Key characteristics of Modules:

* Part of Application Menus: Every module is contained within an application menu. This organization helps users navigate to different areas of the platform efficiently. For instance, the "Incident" application menu may contain modules like "Create New" or "All Incidents."

* Functionality: Modules can open various elements, including forms, lists, reports, or URLs. This flexibility allows modules to direct users to specific records, filtered lists, or external resources.

* Association with Tables: While many modules are associated with specific tables (e.g., a module that displays a list of incidents is associated with the "Incident" table), it's not a strict requirement. Some modules may link to external URLs or perform actions not directly tied to a table.

* Access Control: Access to modules is controlled through roles. Administrators can define which user roles have visibility and access to specific modules, ensuring that users only see modules relevant to their responsibilities.

For example, a module named "Active Incidents" under the "Incident" application menu might display a list of all active incident records. Access to this module can be restricted to users with the "itil" role, ensuring that only authorized personnel can view active incidents.

질문 # 126

Which of the following is true for the Application Picker and Application Scope?

- A. Global is a reserved application which does not appear in the Application Picker
- B. Selecting application from the Application Picker does not set the Application Scope.
- C. Selecting an application from the Application Picker sets the Application Scope
- D. Selecting Global in the Application Picker sets the Application Scope to incident

정답: C

설명:

"Application developers must select an application as their current scope context." https://docs.servicenow.com/bundle/tokyo-application-development/page/build/applications/task/t\_SelectAnAppFromTheAppPicker.html

질문 # 127

When creating a table in a privately-scoped application, which four Access Controls are created for the table?

- A. Create, Delete, Read, Update
- B. Insert, Delete, Query, Update
- C. Create, Delete, Read, Write
- D. Insert, Delete, Query, Write

정답: C

설명:

When creating a table in a privately-scoped application, four Access Controls are automatically created for the table. These Access Controls define the permissions for the four basic operations on the table: Create, Delete, Read, and Write. The Create operation allows the user to create new records on the table. The Delete operation allows the user to delete existing records on the table. The Read operation allows the user to view the records on the table. The Write operation allows the user to modify the records on the table. By default, these Access Controls grant access to the admin role and the application scope. You can modify or delete these Access Controls as needed.

The other options are not valid Access Controls for a table. Insert, Query, and Update are not operations, but methods of the GlideRecord class that are used to manipulate records on the server-side. They are not part of the Access Control rules.
