NEW QUESTION # 376

When does the 'directing a project' process start?

- A. After the project mandate has been received
- B. When the project manager submits the project brief for approval
- C. When the request to authorize a project is received
- D. After the project has been authorized by the business layer

Answer: C

Explanation:

The 'Directing a Project' process in PRINCE2 starts when the request to authorize a project is received. This request usually comes after the initial project setup has been reviewed and there is a need to formally authorize the project to begin detailed planning and execution. This is a crucial step in establishing the governance framework that will guide the project's overall direction. References: (PRINCE2 7 Foundation Handbook, AXELOS)
