Peoplecert MSP Practitioner, 5th edition Exam MSP-Practitioner Prüfungsfragen mit Lösungen (Q45-Q50):

45. Frage

The programme is in the 'evaluate new information' process at the end of Tranche 2. A new supplier has been identified that may be able to develop the next generation smart meters. This would be an alternative to developing them internally as part of the Research and Development Project and it could be faster and cheaper.

Which role should be responsible for evaluating this new information?

- A. Programme manager
- B. Business change manager
- C. Programme office lead
- D. Senior responsible owner

Antwort: A

Begründung:

Comprehensive and Detailed 200 to 250 words of Explanation From Exact Extract of project- programme-and-portfolio-management of 5th Edition MSP:

The 'Evaluate new information' process occurs at the end of each tranche (and continuously throughout) to assess whether the programme remains viable and aligned with its objectives. This process involves reviewing performance, risks, and external opportunities that could impact the business case or the target operating model.

In MSP 5th Edition, the Programme Manager is responsible for the setup and day-to-day management of the programme, which includes the analysis of factors that might require a change in direction. Option B is correct because the Programme Manager is tasked with evaluating the impact of such new information-in this case, a new supplier offering a faster, cheaper alternative-on the overall programme plan and the project delivery schedule. The Programme Manager performs the detailed analysis and then presents the findings and recommendations to the Senior Responsible Owner (SRO) for a final decision. While the SRO is the ultimate decision-maker, the responsibility for the evaluation of technical and management information resides with the Programme Manager. They must determine how this new "imported" solution affects dependencies, costs, and the realization of benefits before the SRO decides whether to pivot the strategy for Tranche 3.

46. Frage

Which of the following is a programme management principle?

- A. Quality and assurance management
- B. Realizing the benefits
- C. Leadership and stakeholder management

- D. Remaining aligned with corporate strategy

Antwort: D

47. Frage

The Smart Meter Programme is in Tranche 2 and the Customer Processes Project is delivering ahead of schedule. This means that fewer resources are required to complete the project. The Training Project, which was due to start in Tranche 3, has now become a higher priority and needs to be started early. The programme manager has recommended starting the Training Project now although Tranche 2 and Tranche 3 will then overlap.

Is this an appropriate application of the structure' theme, and why?

- A. Yes, because available resource capacity should be fully utilized throughout the programme
- B. No, because tranches should be sequential to enable end-of-tranche reviews to take place before the next tranche is approved
- C. Yes, because tranches may overlap if the programme is making good progress and capability is available
- D. No, because tranches should remain sequential if overlapping the tranches would increase the risks to programme delivery

Antwort: C

Begründung:

Comprehensive and Detailed 200 to 250 words of Explanation From Exact Extract of project- programme-and-portfolio-management of 5th Edition MSP:

The Structure Theme in MSP 5th Edition defines how the programme is organized into tranches to manage the delivery of capability and the realization of benefits. While tranches provide a natural "step-by-step" progression, MSP 5th Edition is designed to be more flexible and agile than previous versions. It explicitly recognizes that tranches do not always have to be strictly sequential.

Option B is the correct answer. The guidance states that tranches can overlap if there is a clear business reason to do so-such as a change in priority or the early availability of resources-and if the risks of doing so are managed. Overlapping tranches allows the programme to "bring pace and value" (an MSP Principle) by initiating work as soon as it is feasible. While Option D raises a valid point about risk, MSP does not forbid overlapping; it simply requires that the risks be assessed. If the resources from the Customer Processes Project are now free, using them to start the Training Project early is a sensible management decision that accelerates the delivery of capability. The end-of-tranche review (Option C) still occurs for Tranche 2, but it does not prevent work from a future tranche from beginning if the SRO approves the deviation from the initial plan to maximize efficiency.

48. Frage

Which of below statements are false?

- A. Benefits management qualifies Blueprint
- B. Benefits management identify risks
- C. End of tranche review drives benefits management
- D. Benefits management identifies dependency in plans

Antwort: C

Begründung:

The false statement is that "End of tranche review drives benefits management." In MSP, benefits management drives end of tranche reviews rather than the other way around.

The MSP Practitioner clarifies: "Benefits management drives end of tranche reviews," meaning that benefits realization considerations inform tranche planning, execution, and review processes.

This approach ensures that benefit delivery remains central to programme governance and decision-making, promoting alignment of delivery with strategic value.

49. Frage

The programme is in the 'deliver the capabilities' process. When the Call Centre Rationalization Project is complete, it will be important to inform all staff and customers. This is because there will be new contact details for the new single call centre with longer opening hours. The programme manager has planned for both internal and external announcements to publicize this.

Which theme is MOST relevant to these planned activities?

- A. Knowledge

- B. Organization
- C. Structure
- D. Decisions

Antwort: A

Begründung:

Comprehensive and Detailed 200 to 250 words of Explanation From Exact Extract of project- programme-and-portfolio-management of 5th Edition MSP:

The Knowledge Theme in MSP 5th Edition covers the management of information, including how it is communicated to stakeholders to support the transformation. A core element of this theme is Stakeholder Engagement, which requires a structured approach to informing, involving, and influencing those affected by the programme's outcomes.

In the scenario described, the activity of making "internal and external announcements" to inform staff and customers about new contact details is a fundamental part of the programme's communication strategy.

Option B is the correct answer because the Knowledge theme ensures that the right information reaches the right people at the right time. In MSP 5th Edition, communication is not just about broadcasting; it is about ensuring that the information provided (the new contact details) enables the successful adoption of the new capability (the rationalized call centre). Without this flow of knowledge, customers would be unable to access the service, and the benefit of "longer opening hours" would not be realized. This activity is a practical application of the theme's focus on information management and stakeholder communication to bridge the gap between delivering a technical capability and achieving a successful business outcome.
