In which phase of an implementation project do the Fit-to-Standard analysis and design workshops take place?

- A. Explore
- B. Prepare
- C. Realize
- D. Discover

Answer: A

Explanation:
In the SAP Activate methodology, theExplorephase is where Fit-to-Standard analysis and design workshops take place. This phase focuses on validating the standard SAP processes against the customer's business requirements and identifying any necessary adjustments.
Option A: Realize
This option is incorrect. The Realize phase involves configuring the system based on the outcomes of the Explore phase and preparing it for testing and deployment.
Option B: Prepare
This option is incorrect. The Prepare phase includes initial planning and preparation activities but does not involve conducting Fit-to-Standard workshops.
Option C: Explore
This option is correct. During the Explore phase, Fit-to-Standard workshops are conducted to align standard SAP processes with the customer's business needs. These workshops are essential for defining how the solution will be configured in the subsequent phases.
SAP Learning
Option D: Discover
This option is incorrect. The Discover phase is an initial phase focused on understanding the solution scope and benefits but does not include detailed process analysis workshops.
In summary, theExplorephase of the SAP Activate methodology is dedicated to conducting Fit-to-Standard analysis and design workshops, ensuring that the standard SAP processes are tailored to meet the customer's specific business requirements.
