NEW QUESTION # 27

One of the simplest ways to justify unacceptable conduct and avoid guilt feelings is to invent a good reason for _____.

Answer:

Explanation:

One's actions (i.e., Rationalization)

* Rationale for Correct Answer: Rationalization is the cognitive process by which fraud perpetrators justify their unethical conduct so they can commit fraud without feeling like criminals. A common way is to "invent a good reason" for their actions (e.g., "I deserve it," "I'll pay it back," "Everyone else is doing it"). Thus, the correct completion is "one's actions" or more precisely, Rationalization.

* Analysis of Incorrect Options: Since this is a fill-in-the-blank, the distractors are implied. The only correct concept here is rationalization of one's actions.

* Key Concept: Rationalization - one leg of the fraud triangle.
