Fortinet FCSS - SD-WAN 7.6 Architect Sample Questions (Q44-Q49):

NEW QUESTION # 44

Refer to the exhibit. Two hub-and-spoke groups are connected through redundant site-to-site IPsec VPNs between Hub 1 and Hub 2.

Which two configuration settings are required for the spoke A1 to establish an ADVPN shortcut with the spoke B2? (Choose two.)

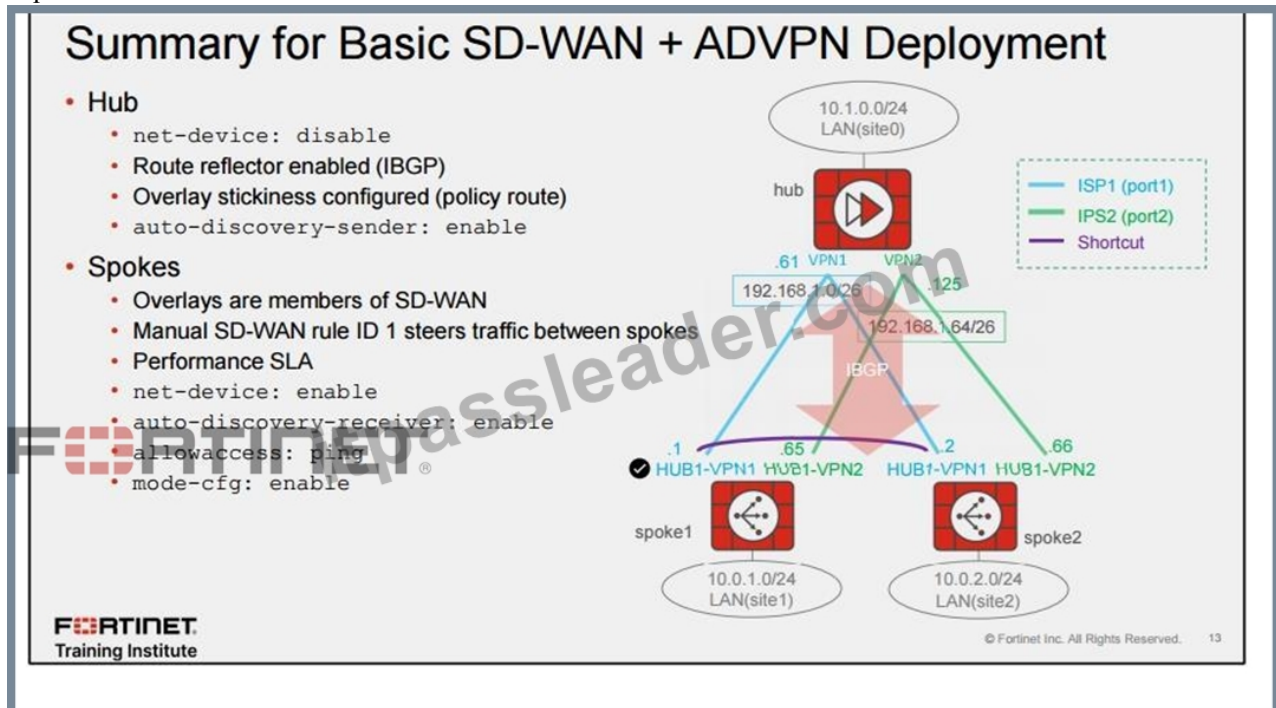

- A. On hubs, auto-discovery-sender must be enabled on the IPsec VPNs to spokes.
- B. On hubs, auto-discovery-forwarder must be enabled on the IPsec VPNs to hubs.

- C. On hubs, auto-discovery-receiver must be enabled on the IPsec VPNs to spokes.
- D. On hubs, auto-discovery-forwarder must be enabled on the IPsec VPNs to spokes.

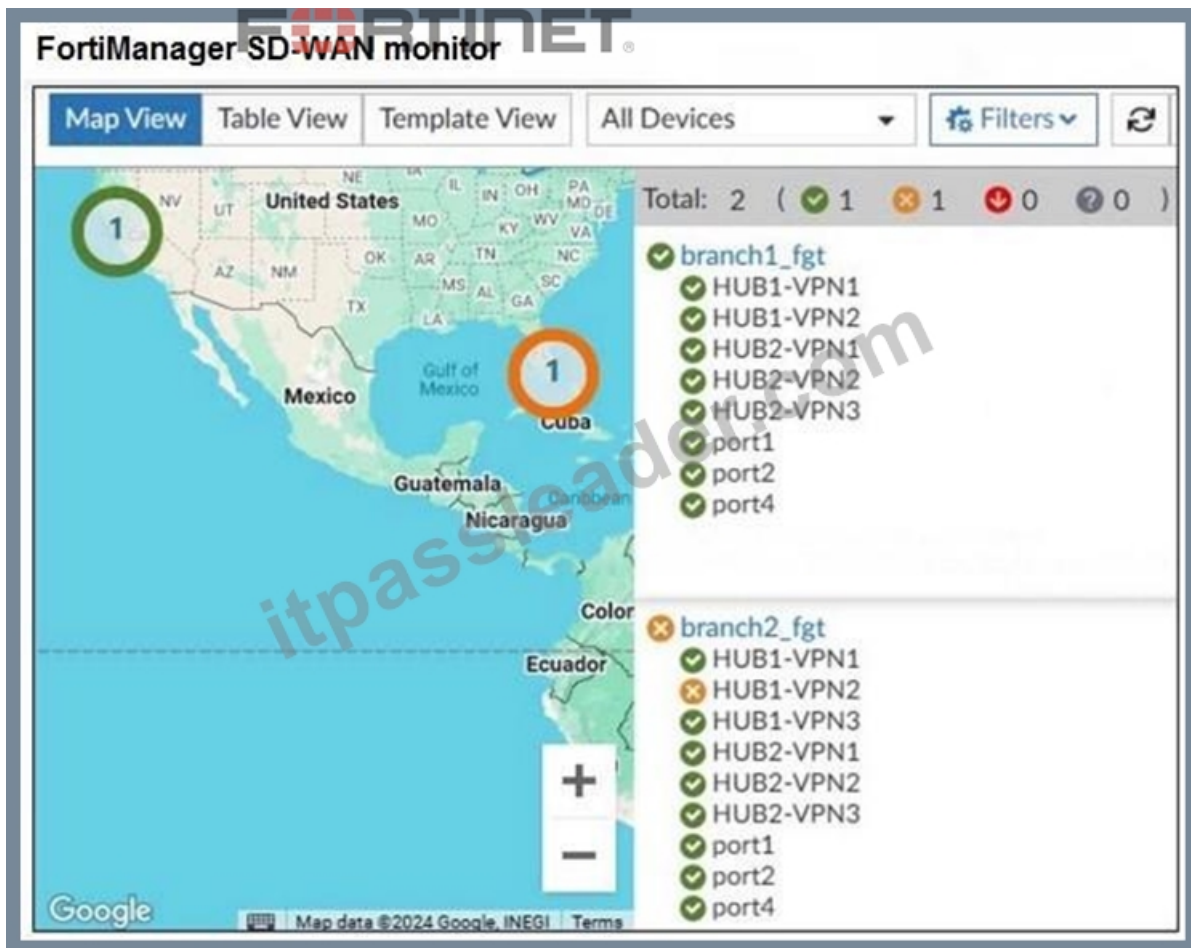

Answer: A,B

NEW QUESTION # 45

Refer to the exhibit. An administrator checks the status of an SD-WAN topology using the FortiManager SD-WAN monitor menus. All members are configured with one or two SLAs. Which two conclusions can you draw from the output shown? (Choose two.)

- A. One member of branch2_fgt is missing the SLAs.
- B. The template view should be used to see the hub devices.
- C. branch2_fgt establishes six tunnels to the hubs and they are all up.
- D. This SD-WAN topology contains only two branch devices.

Answer: B,D

Explanation:

The template view should be used to see the hub devices.

The FortiManager SD-WAN monitor has multiple views; the Template View shows devices and templates (including hub device templates), so you'd use it to examine the hub devices and their template-based configuration.

This SD-WAN topology contains only two branch devices.

The monitor header shows Total: 2, and the map/list shows two branch entries (branch1_fgt and branch2_fgt), so there are only two branch devices in this SD-WAN topology.

NEW QUESTION # 46

Refer to the exhibit. The exhibit shows the details of a session and the index numbers of some relevant interfaces on a FortiGate device that supports hardware offloading.

Based on the information shown in the exhibits, which two conclusions can you draw? (Choose two.)

- A. By default, FortiGate offloads symmetric and asymmetric flows.
- B. The original direction of the symmetric traffic flows from port3 to port2.
- C. The auxiliary session can be offloaded to hardware.
- D. The reply direction of the asymmetric traffic flows from port2 to port3.

Answer: C,D

Explanation:

The session output shows reflect info: dev=7->6/6->7. From the netlink list, index 6 = port2 and 7 = port3, so the reply direction of the asymmetric (auxiliary) session is port2 → port3.

The auxiliary session has npu info ... offload=8/8 (non-zero), indicating it can be offloaded to hardware.

NEW QUESTION # 47

Which three characteristics apply to provisioning templates available on FortiManager? (Choose three.)

- A. A CLI template can be of type CLI script or Perl script.
- B. Each template group can contain up to three IPsec tunnel templates.
- C. A CLI template group can contain CLI templates of both types.
- D. A template group can include a system template and an SD-WAN template.
- E. CLI templates are applied in order, from top to bottom.

Answer: C,D,E

Explanation:

Template groups can include both system and SD-WAN templates to streamline configuration deployment.

A CLI template group can include both CLI Script and CLI Snippet types.
CLI templates are applied in top-to-bottom order, which affects configuration precedence.

NEW QUESTION # 48

Which three characteristics apply to provisioning templates available on FortiManager? (Choose three.)

- A. A CLI template can be of type CLI script or Perl script.
- B. CLI templates are applied in order, from top to bottom
- C. Each template group can contain up to three IPsec tunnel templates.
- D. A CLI template group can contain CLI templates of both types.
- E. A template group can include a system template and an SD-WAN template.

Answer: B,D,E

Explanation:

The provisioning templates in FortiManager are designed for flexible, scalable configuration of large SD-WAN deployments. The official documentation explains:

"Template groups can consist of both system and SD-WAN templates, providing a way to apply consistent settings across multiple devices. CLI templates are evaluated and executed in order from top to bottom within the template group, which is crucial for managing dependencies. Furthermore, CLI template groups can contain both regular CLI templates and advanced (Perl-script-based) templates, allowing complex or conditional configuration logic." This modular design streamlines large deployments by separating system, SD-WAN, and CLI logic into reusable building blocks.
