NEW QUESTION # 111

Which of the following would MOST LIKELY be a violation of the ACFE Code of Professional Ethics?

- A. Susan, a CFE, was hired by a client to conduct a fraud examination but found nothing amiss. A year later, she received a legal order from the local prosecutor's office to provide the client's file. Susan complied with the court order, even though she did not have the client's authorization to do so.
- B. Green, a CFE, uncovered several material internal control deficiencies unrelated to the financial statement fraud he was investigating. In his final report to management, Green included information about the deficiencies even though they were unrelated to the situation he was hired to investigate.
- C. Stephanie, a CFE, accepted a fraud examination assignment and then instructed a lower-level employee to assess the company's cash records for signs of fraud. She took his word when he said there was no evidence of wrongdoing and ended up failing to uncover a very costly fraud scheme.
- D. All of the above are violations

Answer: D

Explanation:

Analysis of Each Option:

A: Green's conduct: Including unrelated deficiencies violates the principle of relevance and focus in reporting. It may lead to confusion or breach professional diligence.

B: Stephanie's conduct: Delegating tasks without oversight or review violates the ACFE Code's requirement for due diligence.

C: Susan's conduct: Failing to seek client authorization before disclosing records (even under a court order) breaches confidentiality provisions unless explicitly required by law.

Key Ethical Considerations:

CFEs must adhere to principles of confidentiality, diligence, and focus in their work.

Failing to follow these standards compromises the integrity and credibility of their practice.

Conclusion: All the described scenarios involve violations of the ACFE Code of Professional Ethics.

Gray, an independent Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE), was hired by Green, president of the ABC Corporation, to investigate allegations that one of ABC's employees is taking kickbacks. During the investigation, Gray teams that Green is involved in an unrelated fraud. Under the ACFE Code of Professional Ethics, Gray should:

- A. Not disclose the information about Green.
- B. Report Green to law enforcement
- C. Resign from the engagement
- D. Tell the company's board of directors about Green.

Answer: D

The ACFE Code of Professional Ethics requires Certified Fraud Examiners (CFEs) to disclose material information to the proper authorities. When fraud is discovered, the CFE must act in the best interest of the organization while adhering to ethical standards.

* In this scenario, Gray must report Green's involvement in unrelated fraud to ABC Corporation's board of directors. This ensures transparency and accountability without breaching client confidentiality unnecessarily.

Relevant Principles from ACFE Code of Ethics:

* Integrity: CFEs must act honestly and report findings to the appropriate parties.

* Objectivity: The CFE must avoid conflicts of interest and ensure impartiality in all findings and disclosures.

Board Reporting Responsibility:
