Oracle Eloqua Marketing 2025 Implementation Professional Sample Questions (Q115-Q120):

NEW QUESTION # 115

How can marketers collect and manage subscriber preferences within Eloqua?

- A. By leveraging Eloqua's built-in forms and preference centers.
- B. By purchasing third-party preference data and importing it into Eloqua.
- C. Through manual data entry into a separate subscriber preference database.
- D. By exporting subscriber data to external preference management software.

Answer: A

Explanation:

Marketers can collect and manage subscriber preferences within Eloqua by utilizing Eloqua's built-in forms and preference centers. Eloqua provides customizable preference forms and preference centers that can be easily integrated into marketing campaigns. These forms allow subscribers to indicate their preferences and update their contact information securely within the Eloqua platform. This enables marketers to gather accurate preference data directly within Eloqua and ensures that subscriber preferences are up to date.

NEW QUESTION # 116

Which component of Oracle Eloqua enables tracking and analysis of website visitor behavior?

- A. Profiler
- B. Web Personalization
- C. Social Suite
- D. Analytics

Answer: B

Explanation:

The Web Personalization component of Oracle Eloqua allows businesses to track and analyze visitor behavior on their website. It provides insights into visitor engagement, interests, and preferences, enabling personalized experiences and targeted messaging.

NEW QUESTION # 117

What is the primary purpose of creating users in Oracle Eloqua?

- A. To define user groups and their hierarchy within Oracle Eloqua.
- B. To customize the appearance of the Oracle Eloqua user interface for each individual user.
- C. To import and export user data between Oracle Eloqua and third-party applications.
- D. To assign specific roles and permissions to individuals and control their access to features and data within Oracle Eloqua.

Answer: D

Explanation:

The primary purpose of creating users in Oracle Eloqua is to assign specific roles and permissions to individuals. This allows administrators to control the level of access each user has to different features and data within the platform. By assigning roles and permissions, administrators can ensure that users only have access to the functionalities that are necessary for their job responsibilities.

NEW QUESTION # 118

Which of the following actions can you perform when configuring contact and account views in Oracle Eloqua?

- A. Hide all contact and account fields from view
- B. Add a sub-tab to display related contact or account information
- C. Change the data type of a contact or account field
- D. Restrict access to specific contact or account fields based on user roles

Answer: B

Explanation:

When configuring contact and account views in Oracle Eloqua, you can add sub-tabs to display additional related contact or account information. This helps to organize and present data in a more structured manner, improving user experience and usability.
