Answer: D

Explanation:

Solution:

The correct answer according to learning.sap.com is:

* D. A set of attributes offered as selectable options for a partial item.

As referenced in the Configuring Preferred and Partial Items section, parametric types are defined as all possible values allowed for a specific catalog item. When an item is marked as partial, the user is presented with a dropdown of parametric type options before adding it to the cart. Parametric types are configured using the parametric name and parametric data fields in the catalog file (.cif format). learning.sap.com
