To be eligible to take the PMI CAPM certification exam, individuals must have a high school diploma or an equivalent qualification and have completed 23 hours of formal project management education. Alternatively, individuals with a four-year degree or a global equivalent are eligible to take the exam without any formal project management education. Certified Associate in Project Management (CAPM) certification is valid for five years, after which individuals must recertify to maintain their certification. Overall, the PMI CAPM certification exam is an excellent starting point for those who are new to project management or wish to advance their career in the field.

To be eligible to take the CAPM Exam, candidates must have a secondary degree (high school diploma or equivalent) and either 1,500 hours of project experience or 23 hours of project management education. CAPM exam fee varies depending on whether the candidate is a member of PMI, but typically ranges from $300 to $400. Once certified, CAPM holders must renew their certification every five years by retaking the exam or by earning Professional Development Units (PDUs) through continuing education and professional development activities.

4.3.3.3 Change Requests

A change request is a formal proposal to modify any document, deliverable, or baseline. An approved change request will replace the associated document, deliverable, or baseline and may result in an update to other parts of the project management plan. When issues are found while project work is being performed, change requests are submitted, which may modify project policies or procedures, project scope, project cost or budget, project schedule, or project quality. Other change requests cover the needed preventive or corrective actions to forestall negative impact later in the project. Requests for a change can be direct or indirect, externally or internally initiated, and can be optional or legally/contractually mandated, and may include:
