- D. The chassis cluster data plane is connected with revenue ports.

Answer: B,D

Two statements that are correct about SRX Series device chassis clusters are:
The chassis cluster data plane is connected with revenue ports: A chassis cluster is a high-availability feature that groups two identical SRX Series devices into a cluster that acts as a single device. The cluster has two types of links: control links and fabric links. The control links are used for exchanging heartbeat messages and configuration synchronization between the nodes. The fabric links are used for forwarding data traffic between the nodes. The fabric links are connected with revenue ports, which are regular Ethernet interfaces that can also be used for normal traffic when not in cluster mode.
The chassis cluster can contain a maximum of two devices: A chassis cluster can only consist of two nodes: node 0 and node 1. The nodes must be the same model, have the same hardware configuration, run the same software version, and have the same license keys. The nodes share a common configuration and act as backup for each other in case of failure.
