問題 #64

When a fraud examiner is conducting an examination and is in the process of collecting documents, the fraud examiner should:

- A. Dust all physical key documents for fingerprints
- B. Establish a document database early in the investigation
- C. Organize all the documents obtained in chronological order
- D. Make copies of originals and leave the originals where they were found

答案： B

解題說明：

The Fraud Examiners Manual advises that fraud examiners should preserve and organize evidence, and one of the key steps is to establish a document database early. This allows examiners to track documents, index them, and link them to findings. Dusting for fingerprints, leaving originals behind, or organizing solely in chronological order are not standard best practices .
