PRINCE2 Practitioner Exam Sample Questions (Q12-Q17):

NEW QUESTION # 12

After preparing the stage 3 plan, the project manager left the company. The project board has decided that, as the stage plan has been agreed, it will not appoint a project manager for stage 3. The team managers will report directly to the project board and will prepare highlight reports instead of checkpoint reports.

Is this an appropriate tailoring of the roles in the 'managing a stage boundary' process?

- A. Yes, because work may be delegated to those with the necessary skills, such as a team manager.
- B. Yes, because the team managers should have the information required to prepare highlight reports.
- C. No, because the team managers should not share the responsibilities of the project manager.
- D. No, because the reporting in the 'controlling a stage' process should not be changed.

Answer: C

NEW QUESTION # 13

Project Scenario - Health and Safety Training Project:

ABC Company is a well-established training company that uses a standard model to develop training materials and deliver courses to customers.

ABC Company has commissioned a project in response to recent changes in government legislation relating to health and safety on construction sites. The project will deliver "capability to provide health and safety training", including the materials needed for classroom-based training and e-learning. The expected benefits for construction companies include a reduction in lost days and legal costs due to accidents.

The e-learning course will be developed by a specialist external consultancy. The materials for classroom-based training will be delivered by ABC Company's development team. All course materials will be piloted before they are used. ABC Company will deliver training to its customers and also hopes to sell the course materials to other training companies as part of their operational business. ABC Company will use their own sales and marketing departments to promote the courses.

The legislation requires construction companies to comply with the new legislation within two years. The course materials and trainers have to be accredited by a government agency before courses can be delivered.

ABC Company is planning to deliver pilot courses within five months of starting the project.

The ABC Company standard development model for new courses recommends the following stages:

End of the Project scenario.

Additional Information:

The Chief Executive Officer (CEO) founded the company five years ago. Under her leadership, ABC Company has grown quickly into a successful training company. It delivers a range of accredited professional training.

The Finance Director is also a founder member of ABC Company and is responsible for authorizing budgets for the Operations and Development Teams. She authorizes all large contracts personally.

The Purchasing Manager reports to the Finance Director and is responsible for managing and monitoring supplier contracts.

The Operations Director is responsible for the delivery of all training and for the training development budget. His department organizes courses, venues and trainers. They work with the Product and the Sales teams to provide a comprehensive training schedule. ABC Company's IT manager reports to the Operations Director.

The Business Development Director has recently been appointed to identify new training needs and propose new products. She will work with the Operations Director to ensure a cost-conscious approach and that appropriate development technologies are used for the health and safety course.

The Training Development Manager reports to the Business Development Director and is responsible for developing training materials and gaining accreditation, in accordance with the standard course development model. Course developers in his team have skills in a range of development technologies and are allocated to projects as needed.

The Training Delivery Manager, who reports to the Operations Director, is responsible for ensuring that internal and external trainers deliver ABC Company training courses to the required standard. He also checks course materials to ensure they are fit for purpose and of the required quality.

The Central Services Director has responsibility for corporate communications, facilities management and configuration management. He recently led a project to consolidate all company quality systems into one quality management system and set up a corporate quality department, now managed by the Corporate Quality Manager.

The Corporate Document Manager reports to the Central Services Director. She helped establish the company's document management system and now operates it across the business. She manages a team of administrators and contracts staff when workload is high.

The Sales Director joined ABC Company two months ago and is keen to establish himself by suggesting new markets for the courses and material. All account managers and the marketing team report to him. They promote existing training courses to other training companies and existing customers.

End of the additional information.

DIRECTING A PROJECT

Here are three actions that are carried out as part of the 'directing a project' process.

During which activity (A-E) should they be carried out?

Choose only one activity for each action. Each activity can be used once, more than once, or not at all.

NEW QUESTION # 14

ABC Company uses a standard development model to develop courses and uses PRINCE2 to manage these projects. The objectives from the Health and Safety Training Project have been documented in the business plan of ABC Company. This business plan has triggered this project. As a result, to save time, the executive has decided to simplify the 'starting up a project' process. The project mandate will be adapted and becomes the project brief.

Is this appropriate, and why?

- A. No, because capturing lessons from previous projects identify lessons to be applied to this project.
- B. No, because the project brief should be a statement which includes a fuller description of the project.
- C. Yes, because the business outcomes are clear, the project brief can be a sample statement elaborating the mandate.
- D. Yes, because the executive can initiate the project based on the project mandate by passing the 'starting up a project' process.

Answer: B

MANAGING A STAGE BOUNDARY

The ABC Company trainers have been accredited and the course booking procedures have been amended.

The 'managing a stage boundary' process is taking place at the end of stage 3.

Which activity should occur during the 'update the business case' activity?

- A. Break the 'planned pilot courses' down into component products in order to identify the work required to deliver them.
- B. Review whether a new team manager should be appointed to lead the delivery of the pilot courses during stage 4.
- C. Update the overall plan with the time and cost taken to develop the 'e-learning course' and 'amended course booking procedures'
- D. Review whether the possible sales of the training course to external companies are likely to cover the project costs.

Answer: C

NEW QUESTION # 16

A change authority has been appointed for the project. During the development of the 'classroom-based training material', a large number of changes were proposed to the design of the 'e-learning course'. Therefore, the change authority has decided to use the Moscow technique to prioritize changes based on the impact they will have on completing each stage on time.

Is this an appropriate application of the Moscow technique, and why?

- A. No, because it should be used to prioritize change based on the project's business justification.
- B. Yes, because it is a prioritization technique that should be used to prioritize a product's quality criteria.
- C. No, because it should define scope tolerances, supporting the management by exception principle.
- D. Yes, because it should be used to prioritize change based on the estimated impact on time.

Answer: D
