NEW QUESTION # 20

Which type of management is an often used term, but has so many different connotations to different people that invariably the message of its meaning gets confused?

- A. Technical
- B. Strategic
- C. Functional
- D. Operational

Answer: B

Explanation:

Strategic management is the type of management that is an often used term, but has so many different connotations to different people that invariably the message of its meaning gets confused. Strategic management is the process of defining and executing the long-term vision, goals, plans, and actions of an organization. Strategic management involves analyzing the internal and external environment, formulating strategies, implementing them, and evaluating their outcomes. Strategic management can be complex and challenging, as it requires alignment and integration of various aspects of the organization, such as culture, structure, resources, capabilities, stakeholders, markets, competitors, or regulations. NEW QUESTION # 21

A consultant is a person who borrows your watch to tell you the time, charges you for doing so and then sells you back your watch.

- A. True
- B. False

Answer: B

Explanation:

Explanation

A consultant is a person who borrows your watch to tell you the time, charges you for doing so and then sells you back your watch. This is false because it is a cynical and unfair description of a consultant's role and value. A consultant is a person who provides professional or expert advice in a specific field or domain. A consultant can help an organization to identify problems, analyze situations, develop solutions, implement changes, improve performance, or achieve goals. A consultant can also provide knowledge, skills, tools, or resources that the organization may not have or need temporarily. Verified References:

NEW QUESTION # 22

Which type of planning requires the commitment of significant financial and human resources for situations that may never even occur?

- A. Technical
- B. Review
- C. Contingency
- D. Operational

Answer: C

Explanation:

Explanation

Contingency planning is the type of planning that requires the commitment of significant financial and human resources for situations that may never even occur. Contingency planning is the process of developing alternative courses of action in case the preferred plan fails or an unexpected event occurs. Contingency planning aims to reduce the impact and uncertainty of potential disruptions and ensure the continuity of the organization's functions and processes. Contingency planning can be costly and time-consuming, as it involves identifying risks, analyzing scenarios, developing strategies, testing plans, and maintaining readiness.

NEW QUESTION # 23

Which type of risks result from business decisions that are influenced by changes in markets, liquidity changes and credit risks?

- A. Technical
- B. Financial
- C. Operational
- D. Strategic

Answer: B

Explanation:

Explanation

Financial risks are the risks that result from business decisions that are influenced by changes in markets, liquidity, and credit.

Financial risks are the uncertainties or variabilities of the financial performance or position of an organization due to factors such as interest rates, exchange rates, inflation, credit ratings, debt levels, or cash flows. Financial risks can affect an organization's profitability, solvency, liquidity, or valuation.

NEW QUESTION # 24

A disaster can also be declared for an illness pandemic where a significant portion of employees are sick.

- A. False
- B. True

Answer: B

Explanation:

A disaster can also be declared for an illness pandemic where a significant portion of employees are sick. This is true because an illness pandemic is a type of natural disaster that can affect an organization's ability to continue its normal operations. An illness pandemic can cause absenteeism, reduced productivity, increased costs, supply chain disruptions, customer dissatisfaction, or regulatory compliance issues. Therefore, an organization may need to declare a disaster and activate its business continuity and disaster recovery plan if an illness pandemic impacts its critical functions and processes beyond an acceptable level.
