- A. Planning for the right level of assurance at the right time
- B. Considering the positive and negative impacts of every decision
- C. Keeping the design of the target operating model up#to#date
- D. Changing the capabilities to be delivered in a tranche, based on new information

Answer: D

Explanation:

Comprehensive and Detailed Explanation From Exact Extract:

The Align with priorities principle ensures the programme adapts to shifting strategic needs. This principle enables reprioritization of work based on emerging business priorities. Changing the capabilities delivered in a tranche when new information arises is the direct embodiment of that adaptability. MSP states:

"Align with priorities: adapting to new information and emergent change." Option D most closely reflects this active alignment.
