CWNP Certified Wireless Analysis Professional Sample Questions (Q31-Q36):

NEW QUESTION # 31
The To DS bit is set to 0 and the From DS is set to 1.

What best describes this 802.11 frame?

- A. A frame being transmitted directly from one client STA to another
- B. A frame being transmitted from an AP to a client STA
- C. A frame being transmitted from a client STA to an AP
- D. A frame being transmitted in a mesh BSS

Answer: B

NEW QUESTION # 32
ABC Company requires the ability to identify and quickly locate rogue devices. ABC has chosen an overlay WIPS solution with Wi-Fi sensors that use dipole antennas to perform this task. No other sensors are included. Use your knowledge of location tracking techniques to answer the question.
Which one of the following location methods is not available in the described system?

- A. Trilateration of RSSI measurements
- B. RF Fingerprinting
- C. Time Difference of Arrival (TDoA)
- D. GPS Positioning

Answer: B

NEW QUESTION # 33
You have installed a new 802.1 lac WLAN configured with 80 MHz channels. Users in one area are complaining about poor performance. This area is currently served by a single AP. You take a spectrum analysis capture in the poor performing area. While examining the waterfall plot you notice the airtime utilization is higher on the first 20 MHz of the 80 MHz channel when compared to the rest of the channel.
What do you conclude?

- A. The AP is misconfigured and needs to be reconfigured to 80 MHz operation
- B. The first 20 MHz is the AP's primary channel and higher airtime utilization on the primary channel is normal when an AP is configured for 80 MHz operation
- C. RRM is enabled and has dynamically picked a 20 MHz channel
- D. Non-Wi-Fi interference is preventing the APs 80 MHz operation

Answer: D

Explanation:
The most likely cause of higher airtime utilization on the first 20 MHz of the 80 MHz channel is non-Wi-Fi interference. Non-Wi-Fi interference can prevent an AP from using its full channel width, as it will degrade the signal quality and increase the noise floor on some parts of the channel. This will force the AP to fall back to a narrower channel width, such as 20 MHz or 40 MHz, to maintain communication with its clients. The waterfall plot can help identify non-Wi-Fi interference by showing spikes or bursts of RF energy on specific frequencies or sub-channels. The other options are not correct, as they do not explain why only the first 20 MHz of the channel has higher airtime utilization. NEW QUESTION # 34
Which one of the following is not a valid acknowledgement frame?

- A. Ack
- B. Block Ack
- C. CTS
- D. RTS

Answer: D

Explanation:
RTS is not a valid acknowledgement frame. RTS stands for Request To Send, and it is a control frame that is used to initiate an

RTS/CTS exchange before sending a data frame. The purpose of an RTS/CTS exchange is to reserve the medium for a data transmission and avoid collisions with hidden nodes. An acknowledgement frame is a control frame that is used to confirm the successful reception of a data frame or a block of data frames. The valid acknowledgement frames are CTS (Clear To Send), Ack (Acknowledgement), and Block Ack (Block Acknowledgement) . NEW QUESTION # 35
You have been asked to recommend a solution for protocol capture of 802.11 frames consisting of 3x3:3
802.11ac communications. The requirement specifies that you gain a general view of a coverage area and does not require that you capture from specific user locations. The solution must be the least expensive practical solution possible that does not disrupt user access to the WLAN and it must be based on enterprise WLAN hardware.
What solution would you recommend so that any coverage area could be monitored on demand?

- A. Install laptop-based protocol analyzer near each AP
- B. Install sufficient Aps so that an AP can be taken offline to perform protocol analysis as needed
- C. Install Wireshark on the Aps natively to allow dynamic capture while serving clients
- D. Install the minimum number of Aps required for coverage and use these Aps for protocol analysis as needed

Answer: C
