VMware 2V0-13.25 Exam Syllabus Topics:

Topic	Details
Topic 1	• Troubleshoot and Optimize the VMware Solution: This section of the exam measures the skills of Operations Engineers. There are no explicitly testable objectives provided in this domain, but candidates are expected to understand troubleshooting and optimization principles to maintain the VMware environment effectively in real-world deployments.
Topic 2	• IT Architectures, Technologies, Standards: This section of the exam measures the skills of IT Architects and covers the ability to distinguish business requirements from technical ones. It expects candidates to understand the differences between conceptual, logical, and physical designs while also differentiating requirements, assumptions, constraints, and risks. Core concepts of availability, manageability, performance, recoverability, and security (AMPRS) are tested. Learners also need to document risk mitigation strategies, design decisions, and create a validation strategy that ties requirements to practical implementation.
Topic 3	• Plan and Design the VMware Solution: This section measures the skills of Cloud Infrastructure Designers. It focuses on gathering and analyzing business requirements and then transforming them into conceptual, logical, and physical models of VMware Cloud Foundation. Candidates are expected to identify prerequisites and make design decisions across fleet topologies, networking, management domains, workload domains, automation, and operations. The section also includes designing for availability within and across zones, creating strategies for manageability such as lifecycle, scalability, and capacity, and ensuring performance and recoverability through BCDR strategies. Additional emphasis is given to designing secure environments, workload migration strategies, and creating consumption, automation, and monitoring strategies to support modern applications and governance.
Topic 4	• VMware Products and Solutions: This section of the exam evaluates the knowledge of VMware Solution Specialists and focuses on VMware Cloud Foundation (VCF). Candidates must be able to identify and differentiate between various VCF architecture options in given scenarios. The emphasis is on understanding the key products and how they integrate into enterprise design choices.

Topic 5	• Install, Configure, Administrate the VMware Solution: This section of the exam is relevant to System Administrators. Although it has no directly testable objectives, it underlines the expectation that candidates are familiar with installation, configuration, and administration tasks that form the foundation for VMware Cloud Foundation solutions.

NEW QUESTION # 22
An architect is responsible for designing a VMware Cloud Foundation (VCF)-based solution for a customer.
During a discovery workshop, the following requirements were stated by the customer:
* All applications/workloads designated as business critical have a Recovery Point Objective (RPO) of 1 business hour.
* The infrastructure components of the VCF solution must have a Recovery Time Objective (RTO) of 4 business hours.
In the context provided, what does the RTO determine?

- A. The minimum tolerable amount of time allowed before an application/service should be recovered to a usable state

- B. The minimum amount of data loss that can be tolerated
- C. The maximum tolerable amount of time allowed before an application/service should be recovered to a usable state
- D. The maximum amount of data loss that can be tolerated

Answer: C

Explanation:
RTO (Recovery Time Objective) defineshow quickly a system/service must be restoredafter a disruption.
In this scenario, the infrastructure components should be fully functional within 4 hours.
This contrasts with RPO, which measuresdata loss tolerance. RTO focuses ondowntime tolerance.
VMware Cloud Foundation documentation on BCDR (Business Continuity and Disaster Recovery) explicitly defines these metrics during availability planning.
