A seafood company in Country Z sources fish from a supplier employing migrant workers. An investigation reveals that the workers were charged excessive recruitment fees, leading to severe debt. Upon arrival, their passports were confiscated, and they were forced to work on fishing vessels for months without fair pay or rest. Those who attempted to leave or report the abuse faced threats of violence. Which labor rights violation best describes this situation?

- A. Child labor
- B. Discrimination
- C. Sexual exploitation
- D. Forced labor

Answer: D

Explanation:

Option C- This scenario involves forced labor because:

Workers were subjected to coercion through confiscation of passports and threats of violence.

They were trapped in abusive working conditions due to debts and lack of freedom to leave. The key elements of forced labor include deception during recruitment, coercion, and lack of consent, all of which are evident in this situation.

Incorrect answer:

Option A- The scenario does not mention minors being employed.

Option B- No evidence of unequal treatment based on characteristics like gender, race, or religion is mentioned.

Option D- The scenario does not involve sexual abuse or coercion.

Red Flag Inc. introduces a new ESG policy and is considering low-cost country sourcing. They need to evaluate suppliers. Which activities should they carry out? Select THREE

- A. Introduce stringent performance management practices
- B. Ensure the supplier has ISO9001 and SA8000 certifications
- C. Select a supplier in their own country, as all low-cost suppliers risk using slave labour
- D. Conduct regular risk assessments to identify risks that may impact ESG performance
- E. Align KPIs to the ESG policy

Answer: A,D,E

Explanation:

Comprehensive and Detailed Explanation From Exact Extract of Documents:

Effective supplier evaluation must align with ESG policies. The L5M5 study guide (p.80) highlights that procurement should establish performance management frameworks (A), ensure that KPIs reflect ESG objectives (B), and carry out regular risk assessments (D). While certifications such as ISO9001 and SA8000 (C) are valuable, requiring them universally may exclude smaller, ethical suppliers unable to afford certification costs. Option E is unethical and discriminatory, as not all low-cost country suppliers use forced labour. A balanced, risk-based approach ensures ethical compliance while supporting sustainability goals.

NEW QUESTION # 89

XYZ Corporation has been acquired by a global company that plans to centralize all sourcing activities and standardize processes. Which factor could help XYZ Corporation gain a competitive advantage through this centralization?

- A. Efficiency gains that lead to increased productivity and lower prices
- B. Improved benchmarking shared data to provide ability to agree prices with global competitors
- C. Ability to use more favorable legislation in different countries and avoid local legal obligations
- D. Increased due diligence activity resulting in lower governance of suppliers

Answer: B

Explanation:

Choice B- Improved benchmarking and shared data can help a company agree on prices with global competitors and gain a competitive advantage. Option B is the correct answer.

Choice C- Competitive advantage can best be described as what sets an organization apart. Increased efficiency is the result of competitive advantage but not a competitive advantage itself.

Choice D- Increased due diligence activity resulting in lower governance of suppliers is not a competitive advantage for XYZ Corporation.

Procurement professionals and suppliers must collaborate to effectively eliminate forced labor. Which of the following strategies can procurement professionals use to address forced labor practices?

1. Boycotting the goods produced from modern slavery
2. Inclusion of anti-slavery and human trafficking clauses in contracts
3. Training for employees and suppliers to raise awareness of slavery issues
4. Treat all women and men fairly at work

- A. 4 and 1
- B. 2 and 3
- C. 1 and 2
- D. 2 and 4

Answer: B

Explanation:

Choice 3- Providing education on the signs of forced labor and human trafficking can empower both employees and suppliers to recognize and report such practices. This is also an answer.

Incorrect answer:

Choice 1- Boycotting the goods produced from modern slavery is a role of the consumer and not a procurement professional.

Choice 4- Treat all women and men fairly at work is related to equality in a workplace and does not concern forced labor practices.
