How can you prepare for the Microsoft PL-900 exam?

To be able to cover all the exam topics with their subtopics, you need to prepare with great deliberation. Microsoft offers several options that you can opt for in preparation for the PL-900 test. Thus, you can decide to go for the following resources:

- Free online courses

There is a free learning path that you can take to learn all the needed details of Power Platform. It has the same name as the certification and offers 12 modules lasting for 5 hours and 18 minutes in total. It covers the basic details of Power Platform, Power Apps, Power Automate, Dataverse, Power BI, Power Virtual Agents, and other information that is covered in the exam topics. The course is completely free and you can take it without prior preparation. Each module has a certain amount of XP that encourages you to proceed further to gain more of it.

- Paid instructor-led course

For those who prefer to study under the supervision of a teacher, there is an option to take the paid course. Its name also coincides with the title of the certificate. You can find one by country and choose a Microsoft partner to enroll for a course. It is an ideal opportunity for those individuals who want to get knowledge from a certified expert. An instructor may also provide you with some additional resources, which is why most learners choose this tool.

- Study guide

You can always buy the official tutorial if you want to increase your chances. The Exam Ref PL-900 Microsoft Power Platform Fundamentals guide is available on Amazon and Microsoft Press Store, so you can use it together with any courses of your choice.
