PRINCE2 Practitioner Exam Sample Questions (Q21-Q26):

NEW QUESTION # 21

ABC Company has a number of projects in progress. The executive of the Health and Safety Training Project is also a member of the project board for two other projects and is very busy. As a result, during this initiation stage, the executive has appointed another person to carry out both their business assurance and the role of change authority for minor and medium severity issues. Is this appropriate, and why?

- A. Yes, because people with delegated project assurance roles may act as the change authority.
- B. No, because the decision to have a change authority should be made before the project is authorized.
- C. No, because the project manager identifies the level of tailoring that is relevant for the project.
- D. Yes, because projects that are likely to have many changes should delegate the change authority.

Answer: A

NEW QUESTION # 22

All the products that are due in stage 3 have been completed, apart from the 'updated corporate quality procedures'. The work has been completed but the product has not yet been approved. The executive has been told that it will be signed off before the end of the project. In response to an exception report, the executive has instructed the project manager to plan to obtain approval of the product in stage 4. Is this appropriate application of the report management stage end' activity, and why?

- A. Yes, because approval of the product can be carried forward into the next stage, with authority from the project board.
- B. No, because approval of the products was planned for stage 3 and must be completed before the stage ends.
- C. Yes, because the completion of the product in the next stage is a follow-on action recommendation for stage 4.
- D. No, because a project-level exception plan is required before approval of the quality procedures can be delayed.

Answer: A
