NEW QUESTION # 17

What ensures that architecture documentation is aligned with business capability goals?

- A. Fact Sheet Owners
- B. RACI Grid Builder
- C. Capability Mapping
- D. Lifecycle Milestones

Answer: C

Explanation:

Capability Mapping links business capabilities to applications, interfaces, and technologies. This mapping ensures that architectural artifacts remain connected to strategic business objectives. By organizing IT components according to the business capabilities they support, organizations can validate whether their architecture aligns with transformation goals and identify redundancy, gaps, or misalignment. Other options may support governance tasks, but only capability mapping directly assures alignment with business capabilities.

What does SAP LeanIX use to represent applications and capabilities?

- A. Linked Lists
- B. Survey Database

- D. Forms

Answer: C

Explanation:

Fact Sheets are the core building blocks in SAP LeanIX. Each Fact Sheet holds information about a specific entity, such as an application, business capability, interface, or technology component. These structured profiles include lifecycle data, ownership, dependencies, and relationships. Using Fact Sheets ensures a standardized representation of architectural components, enabling transparency and accurate transformation planning.

NEW QUESTION # 21

What is used to run fit-to-standard workshops during the design phase?

- A. Simplification lists
- B. Template roadmaps
- C. Compatibility lists
- D. Best practice content

Answer: D

Explanation:

Fit-to-standard workshops rely on SAP Best Practice content to demonstrate standard business processes. This content includes ready-made process models, configuration guides, test scripts, and role definitions that help validate whether standard processes meet business requirements. Simplification and compatibility lists are used for system conversion impact analysis, not for fit-to-standard design activities.
