問題 #90

Which of the following best describes the market structure of the soft drink industry?

- A. A monopoly that suffers from excessive competition
- B. An oligopoly that carries tight government restrictions
- C. An oligopoly that requires a huge upfront investment
- D. A monopoly that restricts further competition

答案: C

解題說明:

The soft drink industry is an oligopoly, dominated by a few major firms (e.g., Coca-Cola, PepsiCo), requiring significant upfront investment for production, branding, and distribution. Option A is incorrect, as government restrictions are not uniquely tight. Option B (monopoly) is incorrect, as multiple firms compete.

Option D (monopoly with excessive competition) is contradictory and incorrect. This question falls under the Economics category, focusing on market structures.

問題 #91

Which of the following procedures is most likely to improve the efficiency of a company's information-processing system?

- A. Standardizing formats
- B. Setting standards
- C. Establishing priorities
- D. Coding documents

答案: A

解題說明:

Standardizing formats for data entry, storage, and retrieval streamlines a company's information-processing system, reducing errors and improving efficiency. Option B (coding documents) may help organization but is less impactful than standardization. Option C (setting standards) is vague and overlaps with A but is less specific. Option D (establishing priorities) affects task management, not system efficiency. This question aligns with the Information Technology category, emphasizing system optimization.

問題 #92

Which of the following sentences is free of any gender, nationality, age, or race bias?

- A. We need someone young and energetic to man the stockroom
- B. Firemen are the bravest and most courageous people in the world.
- C. His conservative views will benefit the company's bottom line.
- D. Cho Yung is a hardworking exchange student who excels in science.

答案: D

解題說明:

Option D is free of bias, as it describes an individual's attributes (hardworking, excels in science) without stereotyping based on gender, nationality, age, or race. Option A uses "firemen," a gender-specific term, implying exclusion of women. Option B uses "his," assuming a male subject, introducing gender bias. Option C specifies "young," indicating age bias, and "man," suggesting gender bias. This question tests workplace communication ethics under the Communication and Career Development category.

問題 #93

Establishing and maintaining high standards in how work is done and in the output of goods and services is commonly referred to as

- A. customer service
- B. standardization
- C. total quality management
- D. effective production

答案: C

解題說明:

Total quality management (TQM) focuses on maintaining high standards in processes and outputs through continuous improvement and quality control. Option A (customer service) addresses customer interactions, not overall quality. Option B (effective production) is vague. Option D (standardization) is part of TQM but not the comprehensive term. This question aligns with the Management and Marketing category, emphasizing quality management.

問題 #94

Which of the following types of reports presents facts, draws conclusions, and makes recommendations?

- A. Analytical
- B. Progress
- C. Informational
- D. Periodic

答案: A

解題說明:

Analytical reports present data, analyze it to draw conclusions, and provide recommendations based on the findings. Option B (informational) reports only present facts without analysis or recommendations. Option C (periodic) reports provide regular updates, often without deep analysis. Option D (progress) reports track project advancements, not necessarily with conclusions or recommendations. This question falls under the Communication and Career Development category, focusing on business reporting.
