- A. Speech and Oral
- B. Oral
- C. Speech
- D. Written
- E. Form letter

Answer: B

NEW QUESTION # 1548

A company is conducting a digital transformation project that has a hard deadline.

The marketing team wants to combine this implementation with a new product, and the newly assigned project manager is not aware of all the dependencies.

Using a hybrid approach, what should the project manager do to ensure the dependencies are taken into consideration?

- A. Combine all of the small projects into one big project so the team can collaborate better as one big team.
- B. Make sure that each individual project schedule is aligned with the common deadlines.
- C. Implement a project newsletter so the different team members can be informed about the progress of each project.
- D. Facilitate communication promoting a Scrum of Scrums so the different teams are aware of the dependencies and progress.

Answer: A

NEW QUESTION # 1549

A project manager at a plant with continuous operations needs to deliver a project urgently to meet a market opportunity. What should the project manager do to meet the time-to-market need?

- A. Add resources to activities
- B. Perform tasks in parallel
- C. Increase the number of standup meetings
- D. Conduct serial activities on tasks

Answer: B

Explanation:

In project management, performing tasks in parallel, also known as fast-tracking, is a schedule compression technique used to shorten the project schedule without changing the project scope. It involves performing more activities concurrently or overlapping activities that were originally planned to be done in sequence.

This approach can help meet time-to-market needs by accelerating the project schedule. However, it may increase project risk and requires careful management.

NEW QUESTION # 1550

- A. Sequence Activities.
- B. Define Activities.
- C. Control Schedule.
- D. Define Scope.

NEW QUESTION # 1551

- A. Stakeholder register
- B. Stakeholder engagement assessment matrix
- C. Issue log
- D. Requirements traceability matrix

NEW QUESTION # 1552
