HRCI The Professional in Human Resources (SPHR) Sample Questions (Q256-Q261):

NEW QUESTION # 256

You are leading a brief presentation for your company about the ERISA program your company participates in. What is ERISA used for?

- A. It protects the workers of employee compensation plans
- B. It protects private organizations that have profit sharing plans for employee compensation
- C. It protects the interests of those who participate in employee benefit plans
- D. It allows private organizations to create investments for workers in profit-sharing plans

Answer: C

Explanation:

Section: Volume C

Explanation/Reference:

Answer option B is correct.

ERISA is the Employee Retirement Income Security Act established in 1974. It protects the interests of those who participate in employee benefit plans. The plan established minimum participation and vesting standards for retirement plans.

Answer options D, A, and C are incorrect. These are not good definitions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act.

Chapter: Compensation and Benefits

Objective: Benefits

NEW QUESTION # 257

What is an employer's responsibility when workplace conditions pose a threat to an unborn child?

- A. Allow only sterile employees to work in jobs that pose a threat to unborn children.
- B. Move the employee into a different job that does not pose a threat to the unborn child.
- C. Advise the employee of the potential threat, and allow the employee to make the decision.
- D. Do nothing. It is up to employees to protect their unborn children.

Answer: C

Explanation:

Section: Volume D

Explanation/Reference:

Answer option C is correct.

The Supreme Court determined in Automobile Workers v. Johnson Controls, Inc. that it is the responsibility of prospective parents to protect their unborn children. Although employers must provide information about potential hazards, the employer may not decide for the employee whether to work in a job that poses a risk to an unborn child. See Chapter 8 for more information.

Chapter: Risk Management

Objective: Risk Identification

NEW QUESTION # 258

Which employee growth and assessment program is characterized by performance objectives?

- A. Management by objectives (MBO)
- B. Behavioral-based performance assessment
- C. Continuous-feedback program

- D. Skills-based performance assessment

Answer: A

Explanation:

Explanation/Reference:

Answer option B is correct.

The first three choices are all employee growth and assessment programs. Behavioral-based performance assessment (D) focuses on behaviors, whereas skills-based performance assessment (C) focuses on skills. MBO programs measure the successful attainment of objectives. The continuous-feedback program (A) is a performance management program

Chapter: Human Resource Development

Objective: Review Questions

NEW QUESTION # 259

Which of the following refers to the process of attracting, screening, and selecting qualified people for a job at an organization?

- A. Recruitment
- B. HR audit
- C. Green circle
- D. Straight-line operation

Answer: A

Explanation:

Section: Volume B

Explanation/Reference:

Answer option B is correct.

Recruitment refers to the process of attracting, screening, and selecting qualified people for a job at an organization or firm. For some components of the recruitment process, mid- and large-size organizations often retain professional recruiters or outsource some of the process to recruitment agencies.

Answer option A is incorrect. An HR audit identifies practice areas in an organization that are working well and those that may be out of compliance with legal requirements.

Answer option D is incorrect. Green circle refers to salaries that are below the minimum of the salary range.

Answer option C is incorrect. A straight-line operation refers to two businesses that perform operations complementing each other.
