ASIS-PSP certification exam assesses candidates' expertise in designing, developing, and implementing physical security strategies. It tests their knowledge of securing personnel, access control, video surveillance, and alarm systems. It also covers areas such as risk assessment, ethics, and management practices, which are critical to the effective management of physical security programs. Candidates are tested on their ability to apply the knowledge obtained from theoretical concepts and standards to practical situations.

ASIS-PSP exam is a rigorous test of knowledge and skill, and passing the exam requires a significant amount of preparation and study. Many professionals choose to prepare for the exam by enrolling in training courses or studying independently using study materials provided by ASIS. Achieving the PSP certification is a valuable achievement for anyone working in the field of physical security, and can help to advance their career and increase their earning potential.

ASIS Physical Security Professional Exam Sample Questions (Q221-Q226):

NEW QUESTION # 221

_____ has been defined as the impact of a loss as measured in dollars.

- A. Corruptness
- B. Criticality
- C. Immorality
- D. Loss reserves

Answer: B

Explanation:

In security and risk management, criticality refers to the importance or impact of a loss, typically measured in monetary terms. It helps determine how severely the loss of an asset, process, or system could affect operations, productivity, or safety. Understanding criticality allows security professionals to prioritize protection efforts based on potential financial and operational consequences. NEW QUESTION # 222

Taking personal property in such a way that the plaintiff's use or right of possession of chattel is restricted is called:

- A. Transfer
- B. Restriction
- C. Conversion
- D. Constraint

Answer: C

Explanation:

Conversion is a civil tort that occurs when one party wrongfully possesses or interferes with another's personal property (chattel) to the extent that the owner's use or rights are seriously restricted or denied. It's essentially a civil version of theft.

Restriction (A), Transfer (B), and Constraint (C) are not legally specific terms for this tort.
