Medical Professional Certified Case Manager Certification Exam (CCM) Sample Questions (Q69-Q74):

NEW QUESTION # 69

The Contractor is entitled to an advance payment. Applying FIDIC Red Book (edition 1999), which two of the following statements are correct?

Choose all of the correct answers (multiple possibilities):

- A. The advance payment reflects the amount of works the Contractor has already performed up to the moment such advance payment is performed.
- B. Under the General Conditions, the advance payment will be repaid by deducting all amounts from invoices until the entire advance payment is repaid.
- C. The advance payment is to help the Contractor to finance some of its early cost and expenditure until it becomes entitled to first (non-interim) payment.
- D. Under the General Conditions, the amount of advance payment is to be paid in full by the Employer through one instalment.

Answer: B,C

Explanation:

Comprehensive and Detailed Explanation:

Under FIDIC Red Book 1999, advance payment is intended to assist the Contractor in financing the mobilization and early works costs before the Contractor begins receiving regular payments for work performed (Option A). It is not a payment for work already completed, so Option B is incorrect.

The General Conditions provide that the advance payment is usually made in a lump sum or agreed instalments and that the Employer makes the payment in advance (Option C is partially true but generally it can be one or multiple instalments, depending on contract terms).

Importantly, the advance payment must be repaid by the Contractor through deductions from subsequent interim payments (Option D), ensuring the Employer recovers the advanced funds as the work progresses.

NEW QUESTION # 70

The FIDIC Books are evolutions of earlier contract models, and although the different versions of a specific model are not the same, familiarity in definitions and structure makes it easier to work with different FIDIC books as well as with their different editions.

Is this statement true or false?

- A. True
- B. False

Answer: A

Explanation:

This statement is true. The FIDIC suite of contracts, including Red, Yellow, and Silver Books, have evolved from earlier editions and contract models, but they retain a common structure, terminology, and approach to risk allocation. This familiarity allows professionals who know one FIDIC contract to adapt more easily to other FIDIC contracts or updated editions. For example, common terms like Engineer, Employer, Contractor, Variation, and Claims exist across editions with consistent meaning. The modular and familiar structure supports easier contract administration, negotiation, and interpretation. However, differences in clauses, obligations, and procedures between editions (e.g., 1999 vs. 2017) require careful review. Nevertheless, the shared foundations mean prior experience provides valuable understanding, streamlining learning and application.

NEW QUESTION # 71

FIDIC Red, Yellow, and Silver Books (both editions) contain a provision for the Engineer or Employer to instruct the Contractor to employ a subcontractor, thereby also permitting the Contractor to refuse to employ such proposed subcontractor on the basis of a reasonable objection by a notice. Is this statement true or false?

- A. True
- B. False

Answer: A

Explanation:

All main FIDIC contract editions contain provisions that allow the Employer or Engineer to propose or instruct the Contractor to employ certain subcontractors (e.g., nominated subcontractors). The Contractor retains the right to refuse such subcontractors only for reasonable cause, which must be communicated formally.

This mechanism protects the Employer's interests in subcontractor selection while safeguarding the Contractor's right to reject subcontractors that may not be competent or suitable.

Therefore, the statement is true.

NEW QUESTION # 72

Regarding the FIDIC Red Book (edition 1999): which two statements are true in respect of Building Information Modelling (BIM)? Choose all of the correct answers (multiple possibilities).

- A. For construction or building projects involving BIM, many Sub-Clauses of FIDIC Red Book (edition 2017) should be thoroughly reviewed when drafting the Particular Conditions.
- B. General Conditions of Contract require the use of BIM.
- C. BIM is not related to the improvement of quality, accuracy, delivery times and cost savings.
- D. BIM is one of the digital data technologies used in all aspects of project planning, investigation, design, construction and operation.

Answer: A,D

Explanation:

Option B is correct: BIM is indeed a digital data technology applicable throughout the project lifecycle.

Option D is correct: Use of BIM requires careful consideration of contract clauses and appropriate adjustments in Particular Conditions.

Option A is incorrect; the 1999 edition does not mandate BIM use.

Option C is false; BIM improves quality, accuracy, delivery times, and cost efficiency.

NEW QUESTION # 73

In which one of the following circumstances is it recommended to select the Contractor after a two-stage procurement procedure (pre-qualification + tender procedure)?

- A. When there is a limited number of capable experienced contractors available and ready to take part in the procurement.
- B. If there is international financing for the project, it is always necessary to conduct a two-stage procurement procedure.
- C. When the works are simple and of short duration.
- D. In case of large scale works, where there are several companies likely to have an interest in submitting an offer.

Answer: D

Explanation:

Two-stage procurement, involving pre-qualification followed by tender, is typically recommended for large-scale projects where many potential contractors might be interested. This process helps to shortlist qualified contractors, thus streamlining the tender evaluation and increasing the quality and competitiveness of submitted offers.

Option C correctly reflects this approach for complex or large projects where competition needs to be managed.

Option A is incorrect since simple, short-duration projects usually do not require complex procurement.

Option B is incorrect because if only a few capable contractors exist, pre-qualification may be less necessary.

Option D is incorrect as international financing does not always mandate two-stage procurement, although it often influences procurement methods.
