NEW QUESTION # 72

You create a Power Virtual Agents bot.

You observe that the bot is not able to recognize input from some users.

You need to configure the bot response for unrecognized input from users.

What are two possible ways to achieve this goal? Each correct answer presents a complete solution.

NOTE: Each correct selection is worth one point.

- A. Connect to a different channel.
- B. Display a system-defined error message.
- C. Transfer to an agent.
- D. Use a fallback topic.

Answer: C,D

Explanation:

B: Use a fallback topic: Power Virtual Agents provides the capability to handle unrecognized inputs by using fallback topics. A fallback topic is a topic that is triggered when the bot is unable to recognize the user input.

You can configure fallback topics by going to the Power Virtual Agents portal, and then select the bot you want to configure. Then select the "Topics" tab and create a new topic with a fallback trigger.

Reference:<https://docs.microsoft.com/en-us/power-virtual-agents/topics-triggers#fallback-triggers> C: Display a system-defined error message: This is another option to handle unrecognized inputs by displaying a predefined message that inform the user that the bot was unable to understand their input.

NEW QUESTION # 73

On a Contact record, a user creates a Note record that contains the word running.

NOTE: Each correct selection is worth one point.

Answer:

Explanation:

Explanation

Graphical user interface, text, application, chat or text message Description automatically generated

Box 1: Add a quick create form

With quick create forms, your app can have a streamlined data entry experience with full support for logic defined by form scripts and business rules.

Box 2: Add a quick view

A quick view form can be added to another form as a quick view control. It provides a template to view information about a related entity record within a form for another entity record. This means your app users do not need to navigate to a different record to see the information needed to do their work.
