DASCA Senior Data Scientist Sample Questions (Q63-Q68):

NEW QUESTION # 63

Which classification steps are performed in inductive techniques?

- i. Training Step
- ii. Test Step
- iii. Validation Step
- iv. Application Step

- A. ii, iii
- B. i, ii, iii, iv
- C. i, ii, iv
- D. i, ii

Answer: B

Explanation:

Inductive learning techniques in machine learning (such as decision trees, neural networks, or SVMs) follow a systematic sequence of steps for classification:

Training Step (i): A model is built using training data, where the system learns relationships between features and target labels.

Test Step (ii): The trained model is evaluated on unseen test data to measure its performance and generalizability.

Validation Step (iii): Often, a validation set is used to fine-tune model parameters, avoid overfitting, and choose the best model configuration.

Application Step (iv): The final validated model is applied to classify new, real-world data.

Since all four steps (i, ii, iii, iv) are essential to inductive classification, the correct answer is Option D (i, ii, iii, iv).

NEW QUESTION # 64

Spark is written in:

- A. Python
- B. C
- C. Java
- D. Scala
- E. C++

Answer: D

Explanation:

Apache Spark is an open-source distributed computing framework widely used for big data processing and machine learning pipelines.

The core implementation of Spark is written in Scala (Option A), which runs on the JVM (Java Virtual Machine).

Spark also provides APIs for Java, Python (PySpark), R, and SQL, but its native language is Scala.

Options C (C) and D (C++) are incorrect; Spark is not written in these languages.

Python (Option E) is a supported API, but Spark itself is not written in Python.

Thus, the correct answer is Scala (Option A).

NEW QUESTION # 65

Spark should be used when:

- A. Data is massive
- B. None of the above
- C. Both A and B
- D. Data is not massive

Answer: A

Explanation:

Apache Spark is a distributed data processing engine optimized for big data scenarios. It is specifically designed to handle:

Large-scale datasets spread across clusters.

Massive streaming or batch data pipelines.

Machine learning and graph processing at scale.

Option A: Correct - Spark excels when data is massive and distributed.

Option B: Incorrect - Spark is overkill for small data (Pandas, NumPy, or scikit-learn would be more efficient).

Option C: Incorrect - Spark is not optimized for small datasets.

Option D: Incorrect - since A is valid.

Thus, Spark should be used when data is massive # Option A.

NEW QUESTION # 66

Which of the following is NOT a process of Use Case?

- A. Brainstorm the outcomes that the key stakeholders need to answer to facilitate making the decisions
- B. Capture the decisions that the key business stakeholders need to make in order to support the organization's key business initiatives
- C. Brainstorm the questions that the key stakeholders need to answer to facilitate making the decisions
- D. Understand your organization's key business initiatives or business challenge
- E. Identify your key business stakeholders

Answer: A

Explanation:

Use Case Development in data science projects involves identifying business needs and mapping analytics to business decisions. The standard steps include:

Option A: Understanding the key initiatives or challenges.

Option B: Identifying the key stakeholders.

Option C: Capturing the decisions stakeholders must make.

Option E: Brainstorming the questions stakeholders need answered to support decisions.

However:

Option D (Brainstorm the outcomes stakeholders need to answer): Incorrect phrasing. It is not "outcomes" that are brainstormed but questions and decisions.

Thus, the correct answer is Option D.

NEW QUESTION # 67

Which of the following errors refers to the wrong negation of a true null hypothesis?

- A. None of the above
- B. Hypothesis Error
- C. Type II Error

- D. Logical Error
- E. Type I Error

Answer: E

Explanation:

In hypothesis testing, two main types of errors are defined:

Type I Error (Option A): Occurs when the null hypothesis (H_0) is true, but we incorrectly reject it. This is known as a false positive.

Example: Concluding a drug is effective when it is not.

Type II Error (Option B): Occurs when the null hypothesis (H_0) is false, but we fail to reject it. This is a false negative. Example: Concluding a drug has no effect when it actually does.

Logical Error / Hypothesis Error (Options C and D): Not standard terms in statistical hypothesis testing.

Thus, the "wrong negation of a true null hypothesis" refers to a Type I Error (false positive).
