Domain 3: Security & Access (13%)

Here the test takers must prove that they are conversant with explaining different organization security controls (IP restrictions, passwords, network settings, identity confirmation); implementing the relevant security controls on the basis of the features as well as capacities of the Salesforce sharing model depending on a user request scenario (role hierarchy, organization-wide failures, sharing rules, manual sharing, public groups). In addition, the domain requires the following skills: determining the proper use of a custom profile or permission set using various profile settings and permissions depending on a scenario as well as explaining how folders can be utilized to arrange and secure dashboards, reports, and communication templates.

NEW QUESTION # 29

Sales managers would like to know what could be implemented to surface important values based on the stage of the opportunity.

Which tool should an administrator use to meet the requirement?

- A. Opportunity processes

- B. Dynamic forms
- C. Workflow rules
- D. Path key fields

Answer: D

Explanation:

Explanation

To surface important values based on the stage of the opportunity, the administrator should use path key fields that display fields relevant to each stage along with guidance for success. Path key fields can be customized for each stage and can help users focus on key information and actions as they move opportunities through the sales process. Dynamic forms, opportunity processes, and workflow rules are not designed to show values based on stages. References: https://help.salesforce.com/s/articleView?id=sf.path_key_fields.htm&type=5
