APA American Institute of Certified Planners Exam Sample Questions (Q12-Q17):

NEW QUESTION # 12

A planner has recently prepared for an agency a written survey of the success of Tax Increment Financing (TIF) projects in the state. A planning consultant learns about the study and requests a copy for use on a project in which the consultant is advising another local government. Which of the following is most consistent with the AICP Code of Ethics and Professional Conduct?

- A. Require that the consultant reimburse the agency for a portion of the cost of preparing the report
- B. Send the study directly to the other local government without providing a copy to the consultant
- C. Share the results, with the stipulation that the author be properly credited
- D. Withhold the study on the grounds that the author has exclusive rights to its use

Answer: C

Explanation:

The AICP Code of Ethics (2022), Section A, Principle 3(c), encourages planners to "share the results of experience and research that contribute to the body of planning knowledge." Option A (share the results with proper credit) aligns with this principle, promoting knowledge-sharing while respecting authorship. Option B (require reimbursement) is not mandated by the Code and may hinder professional collaboration. Option C (withhold the study) violates the principle of sharing knowledge. Option D (send to the local government) bypasses the consultant and lacks transparency. The CPC Study Manual (2024) states, "The AICP Code encourages sharing research results with proper attribution, fostering professional collaboration," supporting option A.

NEW QUESTION # 13

Scenario

You are responsible for recommending contracts to the city council. Your immediate supervisor has asked you to prepare a recommendation for a large contract for an individual you know is a good friend of your supervisor. After reviewing the contract, you conclude that the contract amount is not commensurate with the scope of work provided. You believe the contract is a waste of taxpayer dollars if it were to be granted. What might you do first?

Answer:

Explanation:

See the solution below

Explanation

The first thing to do might be to carefully review the data and procedures used in the analysis for accuracy and completeness (Ethical Principle 1). You should document everything during this entire process such as the date and nature of your supervisor's request and the sources of data used to draw the conclusion that the consultant's price is too high. Then write your report and submit it to your supervisor.

NEW QUESTION # 14

Which of the following is associated with Central Place theory?

- A. Harris
- B. Christaller
- C. Ullman
- D. Hoyt

Answer: B

NEW QUESTION # 15

Euclidean zoning districts are based on which element of the Comprehensive Plan?

- A. Community Facilities Plan
- B. Land Use Plan
- C. Major Street Plan
- D. Capital Improvements Plan

Answer: B

Explanation:

Euclidean zoning, named after the 1926 case Village of Euclid v. Ambler Realty Co., organizes land uses into distinct districts (e.g., residential, commercial) based on the Land Use Plan, a core element of the Comprehensive Plan that designates future land use patterns. Option D (Land Use Plan) is correct. The APA's AICP Certification Exam Content Outline(2022), under "Plan and Policy Development," states, "Euclidean zoning districts are directly based on the Land Use Plan, which outlines the intended use of land within a jurisdiction." Option A (Capital Improvements Plan) deals with infrastructure funding. Option B (Major Street Plan) focuses on transportation. Option C (Community Facilities Plan) addresses public services. The CPC Study Manual(2024) confirms, "Euclidean zoning aligns with the Land Use Plan to regulate land use distribution," supporting option D.
