```

```
$ ls -l myfile
```

```
-rwxrwxr-x 1 admin editors C 2022-10-13 10:45 myfile
```

Then the administrator added an existing user test to the editors group:

```
$ sudo usermod -aG editors test
```

However, the user test is still unable to edit the file. Which of the following solutions will fix this issue?

- A. In order to edit the file, additional permissions are required that the user test does not have.
- B. The group for the user test needs to be reloaded by running `sudo source /etc/group`.
- C. The user test needs to log out and log back in before editing the myfile file.
- D. The file is only writable by the root user, and the user test needs root permissions.

Answer: C
