NEW QUESTION # 306
The business analyst (BA) needs to identify collaborators for the current Salesforce CPQ project. The documentation has already been analyzed.
What is another important step the BA should take to identify the correct decision makers?

- A. Create a stakeholder wheel.
- B. Prepare a RACI matrix.
- C. Survey the business units.

Answer: B

Explanation:
Explanation
The important step that the business analyst should take to identify the correct decision makers is to prepare a RACI matrix. A RACI matrix is a tool that defines and assigns the roles and responsibilities of stakeholders or team members for each task or activity in a project or enhancement. RACI stands for Responsible, Accountable, Consulted, and Informed. A RACI matrix helps to identify the correct decision makers by showing who has the authority or accountability for making decisions on each task or activity, as well as who needs to be consulted or informed about those decisions. A RACI matrix also helps to avoid confusion, duplication, or conflict among stakeholders or team members. References:

NEW QUESTION # 310

The business analyst (BA) on the Salesforce development team at Northern Trail Outfitters is leading a requirements elicitation workshop about the process for onboarding new wholesale partners. While whiteboarding the process, one stakeholder continuously interrupts and points out inefficiencies with invoicing and delivery processes.
What should the BA do to prevent the session from being derailed?

- A. Ask the stakeholder to focus on the onboarding process.
- B. Add the stakeholder's concerns to a "parking lot" for further discussion.
- C. Shift the conversation from onboarding to the stakeholder's concerns.

Answer: B

Explanation:
Explanation
The best practice for preventing a session from being derailed by an off-topic stakeholder is to use a "parking lot" technique. A parking lot is a list of topics or issues that are not relevant to the current session but may need further discussion or resolution later. The BA should add the stakeholder's concerns to a parking lot for further discussion, and acknowledge that they are important but out of scope for the current session. This way, the BA can keep the session focused on the onboarding process and avoid wasting time or losing engagement from other stakeholders.
