CSI Canadian Securities Course Exam2 Sample Questions (Q158-Q163):

NEW QUESTION # 158

How are investment dealers unique participants in the institutional market?

- A. They manage a firm's financial assets in support of a company's business activities.
- B. They manage pools of assets on behalf of beneficiaries.
- C. They act on both the buy side and sell side.
- D. They produce research reports.

Answer: C

Explanation:

Investment dealers play a unique role in the institutional market due to their dual capability of operating on both the buy side and the sell side:

* The Buy Side Investment dealers assist institutional investors like pension funds, mutual funds, and hedge funds in acquiring securities to meet their investment objectives. These clients aim to optimize returns on their invested assets, and the dealers provide them with access to securities markets, investment advice, and execution services.

* The Sell Side On the sell side, investment dealers facilitate the issuance of new securities. They underwrite and distribute these securities, providing liquidity to the market. They also produce research reports and provide trade execution services to institutional and retail clients. This dual operation is critical for maintaining market efficiency and ensuring the smooth functioning of capital markets.

This dual-role capacity makes investment dealers pivotal in bridging gaps between the needs of securities issuers and institutional investors. They enhance market liquidity, efficiency, and transparency through their intermediary functions.

NEW QUESTION # 159

What is a key characteristic of an actively managed product that might interest an investor?

- A. Low fees.
- B. Access to money at any time.
- C. Assumes only systematic risk.
- D. Potential to outperform the market.

Answer: D

NEW QUESTION # 160

A fixed-rate bond was originally priced at $100 and paid $5 per year in interest. Currently, the bond is trading at $102.75. What is the impact on the current yield of coupon of the bond as a result of the change in price?

- A. The coupon is higher than 5%.
- B. The current yield is lower than 5%
- C. The current yield is higher than 5%.
- D. The coupon is lower than 5%.

Answer: B

Explanation:

The coupon rate of the bond remains fixed at 5%, as it is based on the bond's original par value of $100. The current yield, however, decreases because the bond's price has increased to $102.75. Current yield is calculated as:

$$\text{Current Yield} = \frac{\text{Coupon Payment}}{\text{Current Price}}$$

$$\text{Current Yield} = \frac{\text{Coupon Payment}}{\text{Current Price}}$$

Given:

* Coupon Payment = $5

* Current Price = $102.75

$$\text{Current Yield} = \frac{5}{102.75} \approx 4.87\%$$

* A. The coupon is higher than 5%: The coupon remains fixed at 5%.

* B. The current yield is higher than 5%: The current yield is lower than 5% due to the increased price.

* D. The coupon is lower than 5%: The coupon does not change with the bond's price.

Reference: CSC Volume 1, Chapter 7, "Bond Pricing - Current Yield Calculation" explains the relationship between price changes and current yield.

What is typically a key tax attribute of dividends?

- A. Reinvested dividends are non-taxable to the shareholders.
- B. Dividends from preferred shares are ineligible for dividend tax credit.
- C. Stock dividends are treated differently than regular cash dividends for tax purposes.
- D. Dividend income is taxed more preferentially than interest income.

Answer: D

Explanation:

Dividends are taxed at a preferential rate in Canada due to the dividend tax credit, which reduces the effective tax rate on dividend income. This is intended to prevent double taxation because corporations have already paid taxes on their profits before distributing dividends to shareholders.

* B. Dividends from preferred shares are ineligible for the dividend tax credit: This is incorrect; dividends from both common and preferred shares are eligible for the dividend tax credit.

* C. Stock dividends are treated differently than regular cash dividends for tax purposes: Stock dividends are generally taxed similarly to cash dividends.

* D. Reinvested dividends are non-taxable to the shareholders: Reinvested dividends are taxable in the year they are earned, even if reinvested.
