OCEG GRC Professional Certification Exam Sample Questions (Q179-Q184):

NEW QUESTION #179

What is the advantage of using technology-based inquiry for discovering events?

- A. This inquiry prevents the need for employee surveys.
- B. This inquiry often provides information sooner than other methods.
- C. This inquiry focuses on unfavorable events.
- D. This inquiry eliminates the need to analyze information.

Answer: B

Explanation:

Technology-based inquiry is advantageous because it often provides information sooner than traditional methods, enabling quicker responses to events and issues.

Benefits of Technology-Based Inquiry:

Real-Time Data: Enables immediate detection of issues through automated alerts or analytics.

Broader Coverage: Monitors large volumes of data and activities more efficiently than manual methods.

Why Other Options Are Incorrect:

A: Technology-based inquiry complements surveys but does not replace them entirely.

B: Information analysis is still required, even when gathered through technology.

C: Technology-based inquiry identifies both favorable and unfavorable events, not just the latter.

Reference:

COSO ERM Framework: Highlights the use of technology in monitoring and inquiry processes.

OCEG GRC Capability Model: Discusses technology-based tools for faster issue detection.

NEW QUESTION # 180

Which trait of the Protector Mindset involves integrating Critical Disciplines to approach work from multiple dimensions?

- A. Versatile
- B. Visionary
- C. Accountable
- D. Intradisciplinary

Answer: A

Explanation:

The Protector Mindset in Governance, Risk, and Compliance (GRC) emphasizes traits that enable individuals and organizations to effectively manage risk, ensure compliance, and uphold ethical standards. "Versatile" refers to the ability to integrate and apply critical disciplines from multiple dimensions to address complex challenges. This is essential in GRC since it involves navigating multiple domains such as governance, compliance, risk management, internal controls, ethics, and security.

Key Elements of Versatility:

Combining knowledge from governance frameworks (e.g., NIST, COSO, ISO 31000).

Applying insights from risk management, compliance audits, and ethical considerations.

Balancing operational objectives with strategic oversight.

Relevant GRC Frameworks Supporting Versatility:

COSO ERM Framework: Focuses on integrating risk management practices into all business processes.

NIST Cybersecurity Framework (CSF): Encourages a multidisciplinary approach to manage cybersecurity risks.

In summary, the "Versatile" trait ensures that Protectors leverage a broad range of expertise to meet organizational objectives while managing risks and compliance obligations effectively.

NEW QUESTION #181

What are leading indicators and lagging indicators?

- A. Leading indicators are types of input from leaders in each unit of the organization, while lagging indicators are views provided by departing employees during exit interviews.
- B. Leading indicators provide information about future events or conditions, while lagging indicators provide information about past events or conditions.
- C. Leading indicators are financial metrics, while lagging indicators are non-financial metrics.
- D. Leading indicators are qualitative measures, while lagging indicators are quantitative measures.

Answer: B

NEW QUESTION # 182

What is the role of an assurance provider in the assurance process?

- A. They oversee the implementation of the organization's compliance program and policies.
- B. They develop the organization's risk management strategy and framework.
- C. They conduct financial audits and issue audit reports.
- D. They conduct activities to evaluate claims and statements about subject matter to enhance confidence.

Answer: D

Explanation:

Anassurance providerplays a key role in evaluating and assessing information or claims related to a subject matter toenhance confidencein its accuracy, reliability, and integrity.

- * Primary Role of Assurance Providers:
- * Assurance providers assess whether an organization's statements, claims, and activities are valid and align with established criteria.
- * Their work helps stakeholders gain confidence in the truth and effectiveness of the information presented.
- * Why Other Options Are Incorrect:
- * B: Oversight of compliance programs is a different role, typically handled by compliance officers or the compliance department.
- * C: Conducting financial audits is one type of assurance activity, but the broader role is more general than just financial audits.
- * D: Developing risk management strategies is part of governance, not directly the responsibility of assurance providers. References:
- * COSO ERM Framework: Discusses assurance providers' role in risk management and oversight.
- * ISO 19011 (Auditing Management Systems): Highlights the role of assurance in verifying compliance and claims.
