HRCI Associate Professional in Human Resources - International Sample Questions (Q103-Q108):

NEW QUESTION # 103

An international corporation aims to enhance its training programs by incorporating more classroom sessions. Describe the steps an HR manager should take to determine the feasibility and impact of this change.

- A. Conduct a needs analysis and feasibility study.
- B. Use feedback from past training sessions exclusively.
- C. Invest in state-of-the-art training facilities.
- D. Hire external trainers for specialized sessions.

Answer: A

Explanation:

Conducting a needs analysis and feasibility study helps the HR manager determine whether incorporating more classroom sessions is practical and beneficial, considering factors such as costs, resources, and potential impact on learning outcomes.

NEW QUESTION # 104

An international corporation has observed low participation rates in its employee fitness programs across several offices. Describe the steps an HR manager should take to increase engagement and participation.

- A. Increase communication about the benefits and success stories.
- B. Offer monetary incentives for participation in programs.
- C. Reduce program complexity to encourage more participation.
- D. Conduct surveys to understand barriers and provide targeted solutions.

Answer: D

Explanation:

Conducting surveys to understand barriers and provide targeted solutions allows HR to address specific issues that may be hindering participation in fitness programs, thereby improving engagement and effectiveness.

NEW QUESTION # 105

Which technique is commonly used to monitor employee morale regularly?

- A. Implementing a rewards and recognition program.
- B. Holding regular one-on-one meetings with employees.
- C. Conducting casual check-ins during breaks.
- D. Hosting annual company retreats.

Answer: B

Explanation:

Holding regular one-on-one meetings with employees is a common technique to monitor employee morale regularly. These meetings provide an opportunity for open dialogue, allowing managers to gauge individual employee satisfaction and address any concerns promptly.

NEW QUESTION # 106

Effective communication of ethical standards within a company helps to _____.

- A. Drive sales goals
- B. Increase profitability
- C. Promote integrity
- D. Enhance teamwork

Answer: C

Explanation:

Effective communication of ethical standards within a company helps to promote integrity among employees. By clearly conveying expectations and values, companies can foster a work environment that prioritizes ethical behavior.
