How should the 10.0.0.0/8 summary route be received from the neighbor, attached to R1 via Fast Ethernet0/0 interface?

- A. The summarization condition is not met. The network 10.1.100.0/24 should be changed to 172.16.0.0/24.

- D. R1 should configure the ip summary-address eigrp <AS number> 10.0.0.0 0.0.0.255 command under the Fast Ethernet 0/0 interface.

Answer: D

NEW QUESTION # 461

An engineer configured a DHCP server for Cisco IP phones to download its configuration from a TFTP server, but the IP phones failed to load the configuration. What must be configured to resolve the issue?

- A. DHCP option 69
- B. BOOTP port 68
- C. DHCP option 66
- D. BOOTP port 67

Answer: C

Explanation:

Explanation

DHCP options 3, 66, and 150 are used to configure Cisco IP Phones. Cisco IP Phones download their configuration from a TFTP server. When a Cisco IP Phone starts, if it does not have both the IP address and TFTP server IP address preconfigured, it sends a request with option 150 or 66 to the DHCP server to obtain this information. + DHCP option 150 provides the IP addresses of a list of TFTP servers. + DHCP option 66 gives the IP address or the hostname of a single TFTP server.

NEW QUESTION # 462

Refer to the exhibit. An engineer must troubleshoot an issue with the aaa authentication that affected the user's login to router R1.

Which command allows the configured user to authenticate?

- A. `aaa authentication login default group radius tacacs+`
- B. `aaa authentication login default group radius`
- C. `aaa authentication login default group radius local`
- D. `aaa authentication login default group tacacs+`

Answer: D

Explanation:

The debug log shows an "Invalid AUTHEN packet (check keys)" error, which indicates a mismatch between the shared key configured on the router and the TACACS+ server. Once the shared key is corrected on both the TACACS+ server and the router, the appropriate AAA authentication method must be applied.

The correct command is `aaa authentication login default group tacacs+`, which specifies that the router should use TACACS+ for authentication. If TACACS+ is the intended authentication method and the shared key is properly configured, this command ensures that the user can successfully log in to the router using TACACS+.

NEW QUESTION # 463
