ICF Associate Certified Coach 認定 ICF-ACC 試験問題 (Q33-Q38):

質問 #33

Your client shares that finally, after many months, they are making progress in an area that has been difficult for them. The worst response is:

- A. Slam the desk, shouting "YES YES YES" and fist pump the air in celebration of your client and your good work.
- B. Listen to the client share, and after a few wows, reflect back to the client some of the path they have walked over the past few months, sharing what you respect and admire in the client.
- C. Ask the client why they did not make this progress sooner, as they had a good plan in place, and should've resolved the issue already.
- D. Remind the client that this change has come only because of the coaching and the help that the coach has been giving.

正解: D

解説:

Option C is the worst because it takes credit for the client's progress, violating Competency 2.2 (partnership) and Ethics Section 2.2 (avoiding self-interest). It undermines the client's autonomy (Competency 8.3) and contradicts the ICF Definition of Coaching, which credits the client for their growth.

Option A may be excessive but isn't harmful. Option B criticizes but doesn't steal credit. Option D (best, see Question 23) honors the client. C most egregiously shifts focus to the coach.

References: ICF Core Competencies (2.2, 8.3); ICF Code of Ethics (2.2); ICF Definition of Coaching.

質問 #34

Your client has identified a concrete action that they want to implement. To help them understand better what some possible results or learnings could come from this proposed action, the worst response is:

- A. Ask your client to share some thoughts, remind them to think optimistically, and not focus on potential problems.
- B. Remind your client that if this action succeeds, life will be much better.
- C. Ask questions around possible consequences or results of the implementation of this action.
- D. Give the client an exercise to write down a list of good possible outcomes.

正解: B

解説:

Option B is the worst because it assumes a positive outcome and imposes the coach's perspective, violating Competency 7.11 (shares without attachment) and Ethics Section 2.2 (avoiding bias). It undermines partnership (Competency 2.2) and limits full exploration (Competency 7.2).

Option A directs but isn't harmful. Option C (best, see Question 17) empowers. Option D restricts scope but isn't as presumptive as B. B most misaligns with ICF standards.

References: ICF Core Competencies (2.2, 7.2, 7.11); ICF Code of Ethics (2.2).

質問 #35

Which is the best time for a coach to help a client develop an action plan?

- A. During the assessment of the client's current goal progress
- B. Once the goal-setting process is complete
- C. When the coach has several options to share

正解: B

質問 # 36

Your client has shared that he/she is experiencing a similar problem in different areas of his/her life, in the workplace and in their personal life. As you are discussing this with your client, you begin to think that there might be a pattern emerging. The best response is:

- A. Notice the pattern and suggest that the client change something in order to break the pattern.
- B. Notice the pattern and ask the client if exploring what the connecting factors might be could be a useful next step.
- C. Notice the pattern and let your client know that they are deliberately sabotaging themselves by not changing this pattern.
- D. Notice the pattern and offer your client your wisdom in overcoming their difficulty.

正解: B

解説:

Option A aligns with ICF Core Competency 7, "Evokes Awareness" (7.2 - Helps the client gain clarity through exploration), by inviting the client to explore the pattern collaboratively without judgment or assumption. This reflects the ICF Code of Ethics, Section 2, "Responsibility to Professionalism" (2.2 - Avoiding imposing personal biases), and Competency 2.2, which emphasizes partnership.

Option B assumes a solution, bypassing client autonomy (Competency 8.3). Option C judges the client, violating Competency 4.1 and Ethics Section 1.1 (non-judgmental stance). Option D shifts to a consulting role, contradicting the ICF Definition of Coaching, which focuses on facilitating client-led discovery, not providing answers. A is the best as it empowers the client to reflect and decide. References: ICF Core Competencies (2.2, 4.1, 7.2, 8.3); ICF Code of Ethics (1.1, 2.2); ICF Definition of Coaching.

質問 # 37

Which response reflects active listening to a client who claims to be struggling?

- A. Asking to share a suggestion while the client is speaking to demonstrate the urgency of the issue
- B. Allowing the client to direct the discussion while the coach asks questions to learn more
- C. Letting the client know the coach is listening and would like to share some recommendations
- D. Relating to the client's struggles by mentioning similar struggles the coach has experienced

正解: B

ICF Competency 6 ("Listens Actively") involves "focusing fully on what the client is saying and not saying, understanding the meaning in context, and demonstrating that the client is heard." It prioritizes client-led dialogue and clarification over coach input. Let's assess:

A. Asking to share a suggestion while the client is speaking to demonstrate the urgency of the issue: Interrupting shifts focus to the coach, undermining active listening (Competency 6).

B. Relating to the client's struggles by mentioning similar struggles the coach has experienced: This risks redirecting attention to the coach, not fully hearing the client (ICF Code of Ethics, Section 1).

C. Allowing the client to direct the discussion while the coach asks questions to learn more: This embodies Competency 6 by keeping the client central, using questions to deepen understanding and reflect listening.

D. Letting the client know the coach is listening and would like to share some recommendations: Offering recommendations shifts to action (Competency 8), not pure active listening.

Option C best reflects active listening, per ICF's competency standards.
