- A. Internal auditors
- B. Forensic accountants
- C. The compliance function
- D. Management

Answer: D

Explanation:

Management is ultimately responsible for ensuring the effectiveness of the organization's anti-fraud program.

NEW QUESTION # 88

Benjamin, a Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE), was contacted regarding an engagement to investigate a complex money laundering case spanning numerous international jurisdictions and involving multiple cutting-edge technologies. Benjamin had previously attended a seminar on investigating money laundering schemes, but he had no other training or experience in such cases. However, he accepted the engagement and chose to conduct the work himself. Benjamin's conduct would likely be a violation of the ACFE Code of Professional Ethics.

- A. False
- B. True

Answer: B

Explanation:

* Understanding the ACFE Code of Professional Ethics: The ACFE Code of Professional Ethics requires Certified Fraud Examiners to demonstrate competence and due care in their professional services. Specifically:

* Rule 2 states that CFEs must "perform all professional engagements with due diligence."

* Rule 4 emphasizes that CFEs must "avoid conduct that discredits the profession or the Association."

* Competence and Due Care:

* Benjamin, despite his attendance at a seminar on money laundering, lacks the requisite expertise or experience in investigating complex money laundering cases. Accepting an engagement of this nature without possessing adequate training, knowledge, or resources indicates a failure to exercise due care.

* The Code emphasizes the importance of competence, meaning professionals must decline engagements that exceed their expertise unless they involve qualified individuals or teams.

* Violation Assessment:

* By choosing to conduct the investigation alone, Benjamin disregards the ethical requirement to ensure competence and quality in professional work. This likely jeopardizes the investigation's integrity and results.

* This conduct could lead to suboptimal outcomes, legal liabilities, and reputational harm, which discredit the profession, violating the ACFE ethical framework.

* Conclusion: Benjamin's decision is a breach of the ACFE Code of Professional Ethics because he failed to ensure adequate preparation, skills, and resources for the engagement.

References:

* ACFE Code of Professional Ethics: Sections on Competence and Due Care.

* Relevant standards and case studies from "Auditor Essentials" and "Excel for Auditors," emphasizing ethical adherence in engagements.

NEW QUESTION # 90

Formally documenting and communicating organizational hierarchies, including the proper flow of information, can hinder an organization's fraud prevention initiatives.

- A. False
- B. True

Answer: A

Explanation:

* Effect of Documenting Organizational Hierarchies:

* Properly documenting hierarchies improves fraud prevention by clarifying responsibilities, ensuring accountability, and establishing clear information flow.

* This reduces ambiguity and limits opportunities for fraud.

* Why the Statement is False:

* Documenting and communicating hierarchies strengthens fraud prevention, rather than hindering it.

* Conclusion: The statement is false because clear hierarchies enhance fraud prevention initiatives.
